Parties without an attorney may contact the Self-Help Center for the following information:

- A list of local resources.
- Written information outlining the divorce/legal separation, nullity, or parentage action process.
- The Family Law Facilitator and the Self-Help Center services.

You must keep the court informed of your current address, phone number and email address. You can do this by filing a Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information (form MC-040) with the court. This form is available at the Self-Help Center or on-line at: www.courts.ca.gov

You may request a Status Conference (SC) or a Case Resolution Conference (CRC) earlier than or in addition to any SC/ CRC scheduled by the court. You can do this by filing a Request for Status Conference or Case Resolution Conference (local form CI-140). This form is available at the Self-Help Center or on-line at: <http://www.monterey.courts.ca.gov>

The purpose of family centered case resolution is to benefit the parties by providing judicial assistance and management to the parties in Family Law actions for the purpose of expediting the processing of the case, reducing the expense of litigation, and focusing on early resolution by settlement. Family centered case resolution is a tool to allow the courts to better assist families.
