3.13 RELEASE OF INFORMATION TO ADVOCATE

A. TO ACCOMPLISH APPOINTMENT

To accomplish the appointment of an advocate, the Judge/Referee/Commissioner making the appointment shall sign an order granting the advocate the authority to review specific relevant documents and interview parties involved in the case, as well as other persons having significant information relating to the child, to the same extent as any other officer appointed to investigate proceedings on behalf of the court.

B. ACCESS TO RECORDS

An advocate shall have the same legal right to records relating to the child the advocate is appointed to represent as any case manager (social worker or probation officer) with regard to records pertaining to the child held by any agency, school, organization, division or department of the state, physician, surgeon, nurse, other health care provider, psychologist, psychiatrist, mental health provider, or law enforcement agency. The advocate shall present the advocate's identification as a court-appointed advocate to any such record holder in support of the advocate's request for access to specific records. No consent from the parent or guardian is necessary for the advocate to have access to any records relating to the child.

C. REPORT OF CHILD ABUSE

An advocate is a mandated child abuse reporter with respect to the case to which the advocate is appointed.

D. COMMUNICATION

There shall be ongoing, regular communication concerning the child's best interests, current status, and significant case developments, maintained among the advocate, case manager, child's attorney, attorneys for parents, relatives, foster parents, and any therapist for the child.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Renumbered from 3.13 to 3.15 January 1, 2010)

CHAPTER 3 JUVENILE DEPARTMENT

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Renumbered from 3.15 to 3.17 January 1, 2010)

3.18 RIGHT TO APPEAR

An advocate shall have the right to be present and be heard at all court hearings and shall not be subject to exclusion by virtue of the fact that the advocate may be called to testify at some point in the proceedings. An advocate shall not be deemed to be a "party," as described in Title 3 of Part II of the Code of Civil Procedure. However, the court, in its discretion, shall have the authority to grant the advocate amicus curiae status, which includes the right to appear with counsel.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended January 1, 2008; Renumbered from 3.16 to 3.18 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2024)

3.19 REPRESENTATION IN JUVENILE DEPENDENCY PROCEEDINGS (California Rules of Court, rule 5.660)

A. ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN

Appointment of counsel is required for a child who is the subject of a petition under Welfare and Institutions Code section 300, and is unrepresented by counsel, unless the court finds the child would not benefit from the appointment of counsel.

1. In order to find that a child would not benefit from the appointment of counsel, the court must find all of the following:
 - a. The child understands the nature of the proceedings;
 - b. The child is able to communicate and advocate effectively with the court, other counsel, other parties, including social workers, and other professionals involved in the case; and
 - c. Under the circumstances of the case, the child would not gain any benefit by being represented by counsel.

CHAPTER 3

JUVENILE DEPARTMENT

2. If the court finds that the child would not benefit from representation of counsel, the court must make a finding on the record as to each criterion in (1) and state the reasons for each finding.
3. If the court finds that the child would not benefit from representation by counsel, the court must appoint a Court Appointed Special Advocate for the child, to serve as guardian ad litem as required in Welfare and Institutions Code section 326.5.

B. GENERAL COMPETENCY REQUIREMENT

Every party in a dependency proceeding who is represented by an attorney is entitled to competent counsel. "Competent counsel" means an attorney who is a member of good standing of the State Bar of California, who has participated in training in the law of juvenile dependency, and who demonstrates adequate forensic skills, knowledge and comprehension of the statutory scheme, the purposes and goals of dependency proceedings, the specific statutes, Rules of Court, and cases relevant to such proceedings, and procedures for filing petitions for extraordinary writs.

All attorneys appearing in juvenile dependency proceedings must meet the minimum standards of competence set forth in subdivision (3) of Rule of Court 5.660. These standards of competence are applicable to attorneys representing public agencies, attorneys employed by public agencies, attorneys appointed by the court to represent any party in a juvenile dependency proceeding and attorneys who are privately retained to represent a party to a juvenile dependency proceeding.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2002; Renumbered from 3.17 to 3.19 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011; Amended July 1, 2017)

3.20 SCREENING FOR COMPETENCY

- A. Effective July 1, 1996, all attorneys who represent parties in a juvenile court proceeding shall meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience set forth in these rules. Any attorney appearing in a dependency matter for the first time shall complete and submit a Certification of Competency to the court within ten (10) days of the attorney's first appearance in a dependency matter.
- B. Attorneys who meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience as set forth in Local rule 3.21, as demonstrated by the information contained in the Certification of Competency submitted to the court, shall be deemed competent to practice before the juvenile court in dependency cases except as provided in Local rule 3.21(B).
- C. Any attorney appearing before the court in a dependency case who does not meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience must notify the court to that effect at their initial appearance. The clerk of the court must notify the represented party by first-class mail to the party's last known address and the attorney at least ten (10) days before the hearing date of the following: 1) a hearing date, time, and location; 2) that at that hearing the court will consider the issue of whether to relieve counsel for failing to complete the requisite training and to provide a Certification of Competency; and 3) that failure to appear for the hearing will be deemed a waiver of any objection and acquiescence to the relief of appointed counsel. At that hearing the court must relieve such appointed counsel and must appoint certified counsel for the party whose attorney failed to complete the required training. If the attorney relieved is a member of a public agency, the agency has the right to transfer the case to a certified attorney within that agency. In the case of retained counsel, the court must notify the party that their counsel has failed to meet the minimum standards required by these rules. The determination whether to waive certification or obtain substitute private counsel is solely within the discretion of the party so notified.

- D. Upon submission of a Certification of Competency (which demonstrates that the attorney has met the minimum standards for training and/or experience), the court may determine, based on conduct or performance of counsel before the court in a dependency case within the six (6) month period prior to the submission of the certification to the court, that a particular attorney does not meet minimum competency standards. In such case, the court shall proceed as set forth in rule 3.21(D).
- E. In the case of an attorney who maintains their principal office outside of this county, proof of certification by the juvenile court of the California county in which the attorney maintains an office shall be sufficient evidence of competence to appear in a juvenile proceeding in this county.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2002; Renumbered from 3.18 to 3.20 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011; Amended January 1, 2024)

3.21 MINIMUM STANDARDS OF EDUCATION, TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE

- A. Effective July 1, 2001, only those attorneys who have completed a minimum of eight (8) hours of training or education in the area of juvenile dependency, or who have sufficient recent experience in dependency proceedings in which the attorney has demonstrated competency, may be appointed to represent parties. Each attorney appearing in a dependency matter before the juvenile court shall not seek certification of competency and shall not be certified by the court as competent until the attorney has completed the following minimum requirements:
 - 1. Participated in at least eight (8) hours of training or education in juvenile dependency law which, in addition to a summary of dependency law and related statutes and cases, must include information on child development, child abuse and neglect, substance abuse, domestic violence, family reunification and preservation and reasonable efforts; or
 - 2. At least six (6) months of recent experience in dependency proceedings in which the attorney has demonstrated competence in the attorney's representation of their clients in said proceedings. In determining whether the attorney has demonstrated competence, the court shall consider whether the attorney's performance has substantially complied with the requirements of these rules.
- B. In order to retain the attorney's certification to practice before the juvenile court, each attorney who has been previously certified by the court shall submit a new Certificate of Competency to the court on or before June 30th of the third year after the year in which the attorney is first certified and then every third year thereafter. The attorney shall attach to the renewal Certification of Competency evidence that the attorney has completed at least eight (8) hours of continuing training or education directly related to dependency proceedings since the attorney was last certified. Evidence of completion of the required number of hours of training or education may include a copy of a certificate of attendance issued by a California MCLE provider; a certificate of attendance issued by a professional organization that provides training and/or education for its members, whether or not it is a MCLE provider; a copy of the training or educational program schedule together with evidence of attendance at such program; or such other documentation as may reasonably be considered to demonstrate the attorney's attendance at such program. Attendance at a court sponsored or approved program will also fulfill this requirement.

- C. The attorney's continuing training or education shall be in the areas set forth in subdivision A.1. of this rule, or in other areas related to juvenile dependency practice including, but not limited to, special education, mental health, health care, immigration issues, the rules of evidence, adoption practice and parentage issues, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, state and federal public assistance programs, the Indian Child Welfare Act, client interviewing and counseling techniques, case investigation and settlement negotiations, mediation, basic motion practice, and the rules of civil procedure.
- D. When a certified attorney fails to submit evidence that the attorney has completed at least the minimum required training and education to the court by the due date, the court shall notify the attorney that the attorney will be decertified. That attorney shall have twenty (20) days from the date of the mailing of the notice to submit evidence of the attorney's completion of the required training or education. If the attorney fails to submit the required evidence or fails to complete the required minimum hours of continuing training or education, the court shall order, except in cases where a party is represented by retained counsel, that certified counsel be substituted for the attorney who fails to complete the required training. In the case of retained counsel, the court shall notify the party that the party's counsel has failed to meet the minimum standards required by these rules. The determination whether to waive certification or obtain substitute private counsel shall be solely within the discretion of the party so notified.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2002; Renumbered from 3.19 to 3.21 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011; Amended January 1, 2024)

3.22 STANDARDS OF REPRESENTATION

All attorneys appearing in dependency proceedings shall meet the following minimum standard of representation:

- A. Attorneys or their agents are expected to meet regularly with clients, including clients who are children, regardless of the age of the child or the child's ability to communicate verbally, to contact social workers and other professionals associated with the client's case, to work with other counsel and the court to resolve disputed aspects of a case without a contested hearing, and to adhere to the mandated timelines. The attorney for the child must have sufficient contact with the child to establish and maintain an adequate and professional attorney-client relationship. The attorney for the child is not required to assume the responsibilities of a social worker and is not expected to perform services for the child that are unrelated to the child's legal representation.

JUVENILE DEPARTMENT

- B. The attorney shall thoroughly and completely investigate the accuracy of the allegations of the petition or other moving papers and the court reports filed in support thereof. This shall include conducting a comprehensive interview with the client to ascertain the client's knowledge of and/or involvement in the matters alleged or reported: contacting social workers and other professionals associated with the case to ascertain if the allegations and/or reports are supported by accurate evidence and reliable information; consulting with and, if necessary, seeking the appointment of experts to advise the attorney or the court with respect to matters which are beyond the expertise of the attorney and/or the court; and obtaining such other facts, evidence, or information as may be necessary to effectively present the client's position to the court.
- C. The attorney shall determine the client's interests and the position the client wishes to take in the matter. Except in those cases in which the client's whereabouts is unknown, this shall include a comprehensive interview with the client. If the client is a minor child who is placed out of home, in addition to interviewing the child, the attorney shall also interview the child's caretaker. The attorney or the attorney's agent shall make at least one (1) visit to the child at the child's placement prior to the jurisdiction hearing. Thereafter, the attorney or the attorney's agent should make at least one (1) visit to the child at the child's placement prior to each review hearing.
- D. The attorney shall advise the client of the possible courses of action and of the risks and benefits of each. This shall include advising the client of the risks and benefits of resolving disputed matters without the necessity for a hearing and of the necessity for adhering to court mandated time limits.
- E. The attorney shall vigorously represent the client within applicable legal and ethical boundaries. This shall include the duty to work cooperatively with other counsel and the court, to explore ways to resolve disputed matters without hearing if it is possible to do so in a way that is consistent with the client's interests, and to comply with the local rules and procedures as well as with statutorily mandated timelines.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2002; Renumbered from 3.20 to 3.22 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011; Amended January 1, 2024)

3.23 PROCEDURES FOR REVIEWING AND RESOLVING COMPLAINTS

- A. Any party to a juvenile court proceeding may lodge a written complaint with the court concerning the performance of the party's appointed attorney in a juvenile court proceeding. In the case of a complaint concerning the performance of an attorney appointed to represent a minor, the complaint may be lodged on the child's behalf by the social worker, a caretaker relative, or a foster parent.
- B. Each appointed attorney must provide written notice to the attorney's adult client of the procedure for lodging complaints with the court concerning the performance of an appointed attorney. The notice shall be given to the client within ten (10) days of the attorney's appointment to represent that client. Evidence that a copy of said notice was given or mailed to the client shall be provided to the court within ten (10) days of a request therefore from the court. In the case of a minor client, the notice shall be mailed or given to the current caretaker of the child. If the minor is twelve (12) years of age or older, a copy of the notice shall also be sent or given to the minor.

- C. The court shall review a complaint within ten (10) days of receipt. If the court determines that the complaint presents reasonable cause to believe that the attorney may have failed to act competently or has violated local rules, the court shall notify the attorney in question of the complaint, shall provide the attorney with a copy of the complaint and shall give the attorney twenty (20) days from the date of the notice to respond to the complaint in writing.
- D. After a response has been filed by the attorney or the time for submission of a response has passed, the court shall review the complaint and the response, if any, to determine whether the attorney acted contrary to local rules or has acted incompetently. The court may ask the complainant or the attorney for additional information prior to making a determination on the complaint.
- E. If, after reviewing the complaint, the response, and any additional information, the court finds that the attorney acted improperly or contrary to the rules or policies of the court, the court may reprove the attorney, either privately or publicly, and may, in cases of willful or egregious violations of local rules, issue such reasonable monetary sanctions against the attorney as the court may deem appropriate.
- F. If, after reviewing the complaint, the response and any additional information, the court finds that the attorney acted incompetently, the court may order that the attorney practice under the supervision of a mentor attorney for a period of at least six (6) months, that the attorney complete a specified number of hours of training or education in the area in which the attorney was found to have been incompetent, or both. In cases in which the attorney's conduct caused actual harm to the attorney's client, the court shall order that competent counsel be substituted for the attorney found to have been incompetent and may, in the court's discretion, refer the matter to the State Bar of California for further action.
- G. The court shall notify the attorney and the complaining party in writing of its determination of the complaint. If the court makes a finding under subdivisions (E) or (F), the attorney shall have ten (10) days after the date of the notice to request a hearing before the court concerning the court's proposed action. If the attorney does not request a hearing within that period of time, the court's determination shall become final.
- H. If the attorney requests a hearing, the attorney shall serve a copy of the request on the complaining party. The hearing shall be held as soon as practicable after the attorney's request therefore, but in no case shall it be held more than thirty (30) days after it has been requested except by stipulation of the parties. The complainant and the attorney shall each be given at least ten (10) days' notice of the hearing. The hearing may be held in chambers. The hearing shall not be open to the public. The court may designate a commissioner, referee, judge pro tempore, or any qualified member of the bar to act as hearing officer.
- I. At the hearing, each party shall have the right to present arguments to the hearing officer with respect to the court's determination. Such arguments shall be based on the evidence before the court at the time the determination was made. No new evidence may be presented unless the party offering such evidence can show that it was not reasonably available to the party at the time that the court made its initial determination with respect to the complaint. Within ten

JUVENILE DEPARTMENT

(10) days after the hearing, the court or hearing officer shall issue a written determination upholding, reversing or amending the court's original determination. The hearing decision shall be the final determination of the court with respect to the matter. A copy of the hearing decision shall be provided to both the complainant and the attorney.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2002; Renumbered from 3.21 to 3.23 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011; Amended January 1, 2024)

3.24 COURT APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATE AS GUARDIAN AD LITEM

If the court makes the findings as outlined in Local rule 3.19(A) and does not appoint an attorney to represent a child, the court must appoint a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) as guardian ad litem for the child.

- A. The required training of a CASA volunteer is set forth in California Rules of Court, rule 5.655.
- B. The caseload of a CASA volunteer acting as a guardian ad litem must be limited to ten (10) cases. A case may include siblings, absent a conflict.
- C. CASA volunteers must not assume the responsibilities of attorneys for children.
- D. The appointment of an attorney to represent a child does not prevent the appointment of a CASA volunteer for that child.

(Adopted July 1, 2002; Renumbered from 3.22 to 3.24 January 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011)

3.25 PROCEDURES FOR INFORMING THE COURT OF THE INTERESTS OF A DEPENDENT CHILD

- A. At any time following the filing of a petition under Welfare and Institutions Code section 300, and until juvenile court jurisdiction is terminated, any interested person may advise the court of information regarding an interest or right of the child that needs to be protected or pursued in other judicial or administrative forums. If the attorney for the child, or a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA), acting as a guardian ad litem learns of any such interest or right, the attorney or CASA must notify the court immediately and seek instructions from the court as to any appropriate procedures to follow.
- B. The rules of this chapter apply to every action and proceeding to which the Probate Code applies. These rules are designed to supplement the Probate Code and Title 7 of the California Rules of Court and to promote uniformity in practice and procedure in Monterey County. In exceptional circumstances and for good cause shown, the court will consider individual exceptions to these rules where not prohibited from doing so by statutory or case law. If a certain law or provision is not addressed in this chapter of the Local Rules of Court, please review the Civil chapter of the Local Rules of Court or the California Rules of Court for information pertinent to the law or provision.

4.4 PROBATE NOTES AND TENTATIVE RULINGS

Probate notes can be accessed on the court's website at www.monterey.courts.ca.gov/probate/notes.

B. Tentative Rulings. Tentative rulings may be issued as provided for in Local Rule 7.9.

ORDERS

4.30 MATERIAL TO BE INCLUDED IN PROBATE ORDERS

- A. Orders shall contain the name of the judge presiding, the date of hearing and the department. All pages of the order shall include the case name and number in a footer or header. All orders in probate matters must be complete in themselves. They shall set forth, with the same particularity required of judgments in civil matters, all matters actually passed on by the court, the relief granted, the names of any persons affected, the descriptions of any property affected and the amounts of any money affected. Probate orders should be written so their general effect may be determined without reference to the petition on which they are based. Orders may reference attached exhibits where use of the exhibits is meant to safeguard against typographical errors, for example where lengthy property descriptions are involved. Exhibits must reference the case name and number. The preferred practice is to incorporate the exhibit into the order and provide for a judicial signature element at the end of the exhibit.

4.51 DECLINATIONS AND CONSENTS TO SERVE

- A. Declination of Named Executor. It is insufficient to allege that the person named in the decedent's will as executor declines to serve. A written declination to serve, verified under penalty of perjury by such person, must be filed with the court. (Code of Civil Procedure section 2015.5.)

- B. Two or More Executors. If a petition for letters to be issued to two (2) or more executors is filed, and one (1) or more of the named executors is not a petitioner, each non-petitioning executor must file a consent to act, verified under penalty of perjury.

4.60 REQUIRED FORM OF ACCOUNTS (Probate Code sections 1060 – 1064)

- A. All accounts filed in probate proceedings shall comply with Probate Code sections 1060 through 1064.

of the waiver is to make it unnecessary to provide financial details, with the exception of a detailed listing of the property to be distributed and its' value for distribution purposes. All other matters normally reported upon at the time an accounting is filed must be presented in the petition. (See California Rules of Court, rule 7.550.)

- C. Account Waiver by Administrator/Trustee. The court will ordinarily not approve a waiver of accounting where the estate's administrator is trustee of a trust that is the sole or a primary beneficiary of the estate, unless all trust beneficiaries waive the filing of an account.
- D. Description of Bonds in Accounts. In any account, other than a final account, where bond has been posted, there shall be included a separate paragraph setting forth the total bond(s) posted, the date posted, the appraised value of personal property on hand plus the estimated annual income from real and personal property and a statement of any additional bond required.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended January 1, 2001; Rule 4.45 renumbered as 4.48 January 1, 2009; Amended July 1, 2013; Rule 4.48 renumbered as 4.60 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.61 ALLEGATION RE: CREDITOR CLAIMS

Prior to filing the interim or final account, counsel are advised to review the court file to ensure that all creditors' claims which may have been filed have been addressed in the interim or final account. It is not sufficient in reports accompanying accounts or in reports where an accounting is waived, to allege merely that all claims have been paid. The personal representative shall provide the information required in California Rules of Court, rule 7.403.

Known creditors, contacted pursuant to Probate Code sections 9050 to 9054, inclusive, must be listed, whether or not such creditors filed a claim against the estate. Notices of administration required by Probate Code section 9050 must be on file with the court prior to, or at the time of, the hearing on the petition for final distribution.

The foregoing allegations must appear in the final report even though they may have appeared in whole or in part in prior reports.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Rule 4.46 renumbered as 4.49 January 1, 2009; Rule 4.49 renumbered as 4.61 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.62 PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON FUNERAL AND INTERMENT CLAIMS

When accrued interest has been paid in connection with the delayed payment of claims for the reasonable cost of funeral expenses, a specific allegation must be made in the report accompanying the account in which credit for such payment has been taken. The allegation shall set forth reasons for any delay in making payment. The court will not allow credit for payment of interest where the delay in payment of the claims is not justified by the facts set forth.

Interest on funeral and interment creditors' claims will only be allowed as provided by Health and Safety Code section 7101, which provides that interest is allowed commencing sixty (60) days after the date of death.

4.64 DEBTS PAID WITHOUT VERIFIED CLAIMS

Even if a claim has not been filed, the court may, under Probate Code section 9154, approve the payment of a debt if the accounting or final report shows that such debt was allowed during the time within which such claim could have been filed and the estate is solvent. Such approval, however, is discretionary with the court and must be justified by allegations in a verified petition.

If the court has questions concerning the propriety of a preliminary distribution, the court may require an accounting.
- C. Description of Independent Acts. In any petition for distribution, all independent acts taken without prior court approval shall be set forth and described, and an allegation made that the fifteen (15) day notice of proposed action was duly served and that no objections were received or that notice was not required. Upon approval of the accounting, any paper lodged documents will either be returned to the submitting party or destroyed as designated on the local form.

The status report shall include a current note from the doctor and dentist confirming the minor was seen within the past twelve months, as well as current report cards and school attendance records covering a 12-month period for each minor. If the status report is complete with the required attachments and the court has no questions to ask the guardian, the court will send the guardian an order approving the status report, along with a blank status report to complete in one year. The guardian must then file the next status report by the deadline stated in the order. If the status report is not filed or is incomplete, the court will send the guardian a notice requesting the missing information. The court may direct the guardian to appear for hearing. Guardian should check the probate notes on the court's website (www.monterey.courts.ca.gov/probate) prior to the hearing.

SALES IN DECEDENTS' ESTATES, CONSERVATORSHIPS, AND GUARDIANSHIPS

4.130 PUBLISHED NOTICE FOR SALE OF REAL ESTATE

- A. Required Notice for Executors. Unless a will specifically grants an executor, as distinguished from an administrator with will annexed, the authority to sell without notice (Probate Code section 10303), a publication of notice of sale of real property is required.
- B. Content of Notice (Probate Code § 10304). The notice of sale of real property must substantially comply in its content with the following example:

“NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, subject to confirmation of this court on (insert date, time and department), or thereafter within the time allowed by law, the undersigned as (administrator, executor, conservator, or guardian) of the estate of the above named (decedent, conservatee, or minor), will sell at private sale to the highest net bidder, on the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned, all right, title, and interest that the estate has acquired in addition to that of the (decedent, conservatee, or minor) at the time of death, in the real property located in Monterey County, California, as follows:

(Insert Legal Description of Property here.) APN:

This property is commonly referred to as (insert address here) and includes (insert any fixture included in the price).

The sale is subject to current taxes, covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, right of way and easements of record, with any encumbrances of record to be satisfied from the purchase price.

The property is to be sold on an “as is” basis, except for title.

An offer on the property in the total amount of (insert amount of bid) has been accepted by the (insert administrator, executor, conservator, or guardian) and a REPORT OF SALE AND PETITION FOR ORDER CONFIRMING SALE OF REAL PROPERTY has been filed in these proceedings, which Report and Petition have been set for hearing on (insert hearing date) and notice made to all interested parties. THE PURPOSE OF THIS NOTICE IS TO INVITE BIDS OVER THE ACCEPTED OFFER, in accordance with the provisions of California Probate Code section 10311. By statute, the initial overbid must be in the amount of (insert first overbid amount).

Overbids are invited for this property and must be in writing and presented on (insert court confirmation hearing date) at (insert hearing time) in department (insert department no.) of the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of Monterey, 1200 Aguajito Rd., Monterey, California. Bid forms may be obtained from the attorney for the (administrator, executor, conservator, or guardian) at the address shown hereinabove or at the Superior Court on the morning of the hearing.

- The property will be sold on the following terms (insert all applicable terms).

CHAPTER 4 PROBATE DEPARTMENT

- The undersigned reserves the right to refuse to accept any bids.
- C. Time. If notice of sale is published, any sale must be in accordance with its terms. If a petition for confirmation of sale is filed alleging the sale took place prior to the date stated in the published notice, the sale cannot be confirmed, and new notice of sale must be published. Pursuant to Probate Code section 10308, any petition for confirmation of sale must allege that the sale was made within thirty (30) days prior to the date on which the petition was filed. The court requires that the specific date of sale be alleged in the return of sale and petition for its confirmation. If a petition for confirmation of sale of real property is filed prior to the date of sale specified in the notice, the court cannot announce the sale on the date set for hearing but must deny confirmation without prejudice to a new sale after another notice has been given as prescribed by law.
- D. Terms of Sale. The published notice of sale of real property constitutes a solicitation for offers. The terms of the solicitation must be substantially similar to the terms of the accepted offer that is the subject of the report of sale and petition for order confirming sale of real property. Published terms of the solicitation cannot be more onerous than the terms of the accepted offer.
- E. Executor's Defect in Notice. If an executor publishes a notice of sale of real property and proceeds with that sale and later a technical defect appears, this defect cannot be cured by the executor's power of sale given in the will. The publication constitutes an election by the executor to sell by means of publication of notice.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2001; Amended January 1, 2002; Rule 4.35 renumbered as 4.38 January 1, 2009; Amended July 1, 2013; Rule 4.38 renumbered as 4.130 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.131 CONFIRMING SALE OF REAL PROPERTY (Probate Code sections 10300 to 10316)

- A. Contract for Sale. The real estate purchase agreement or other contract of sale shall be attached to the report of sale and petition for order confirming sale of real property.
- B. Appearances of Counsel. In petitions for confirmation of sales of real estate and for sales of personal property where bidding is authorized, the court will not proceed with the confirmation of the sale in the absence of the attorney, except in those cases where the personal representative, guardian, or conservator is present and requests that the sale proceed.
- C. Sale Contingencies. Except in exceptional circumstances, all contingencies contained within the real estate purchase agreement, with the exception of court confirmation itself, shall be removed prior to the date of the confirmation hearing. Before the sale is confirmed, counsel shall state for the record that this requirement has been satisfied. Where exceptional circumstances exist to justify a waiver of this requirement, counsel will obtain ex parte authorization to proceed prior to filing the petition.
- D. Continuances. Sale confirmations will be continued only under the most exceptional circumstances. A motion for continuance must be made in open court.

CHAPTER 4

PROBATE DEPARTMENT

- E. Probate Code section 10308 requires that notice be given “to the purchasers named in the petition...”

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended January 1, 2001; Rule 4.36 renumbered as 4.39 January 1, 2009; Rule 4.39 renumbered as 4.131 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.132 EXCLUSIVE LISTINGS FOR THE SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

Where full independent powers have not been granted, Probate Code section 10150 permits a fiduciary to grant an exclusive listing for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days after obtaining the permission of the court. To obtain such permission, the fiduciary must file an ex parte application setting forth, in detail, the property to be sold, the broker to be employed, the terms of the exclusive listing agreement, and the factual reasons why such agreement is necessary and advantageous to the estate. A bare statement of "necessity and advantage" will not suffice.

In all cases, the ex parte order shall provide that a reasonable broker's commission, if any, will be determined by the court at the time of confirmation of sale.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Rule 4.37 renumbered as 4.40 January 1, 2009; Rule 4.40 renumbered as 4.132 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.133 BOND ON SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Petitions for confirmation of sale of real estate shall set forth the amount of bond in force at the time of sale and the amount of property in the estate which should be covered by bond (as provided in Probate Code sections 2320, 2330, and 8482) at the close of escrow. If no additional bond is required, or if bond is waived, that fact must be alleged. A secured promissory note taken as part of the consideration is personal property, and an additional bond must be fixed in the amount of such note plus whatever cash is paid. If additional bond is ordered, it must be filed prior to obtaining the court's signature on the order confirming sale.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Rule 4.38 renumbered as 4.41 January 1, 2009; Rule 4.41 renumbered as 4.133 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.134 BROKER'S COMMISSIONS – GENERAL RULE

- A. The order confirming sale must show the total commissions allowed and any allocation agreed upon between brokers.
- B. Upon confirmation of the sale of improved real property, the court will not allow a broker's commission in excess of six percent (6%), unless justified by exceptional circumstances. A commission of up to ten percent (10%) may be allowed for the sale of raw land.
- C. A commission exceeding the normal schedule will be allowed only under the most unusual circumstances. Whenever possible, the written agreement of the affected beneficiaries should be obtained.
- D. A broker bidding for their own account is not entitled to receive or share in a commission. (Estate of Toy (1977) 72 Cal.App.3d 392.)

4.136 TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

Commissions on sales of tangible personal property will be allowed only to individuals holding a broker's license authorizing them to deal in the type of property involved. A commission will be allowed on the original bid only when the commission is requested in the return of sale. When there is an overbid in court, a commission may be allowed to the successful broker, and, if the original bid was subject to a commission, apportionment between the brokers will be made according to the same rules as prescribed for real estate sales. The amount of the commission is within the court's discretion and will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Rule 4.44 renumbered as 4.47 January 1, 2009; Rule 4.44 renumbered as 4.136 and amended January 1, 2022)

4.137 SALE OF SPECIFICALLY DEvised PROPERTY

On a sale of specifically devised real or personal property, fifteen (15) days' notice of time and place of hearing of the return of sale must be given to the beneficiary, unless their consent to such sale is filed with the court.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Rule 4.42 renumbered as 4.45 January 1, 2009; Rule 4.45 renumbered as 4.137 and amended January 1, 2022)

- B. The court shall consider the years of experience and skill level of the attorney and paralegal, and/or the complexity of the legal issues when determining an appropriate fee. The court may also consider the size of the conservatorship, decedent, guardianship, or trust estate when determining an appropriate fee. The court expects the attorneys to monitor their billing request to avoid seeking attorney compensation for overhead tasks or for researching to become competent to handle the matter.
- C. The court will not automatically allow the maximum rates set forth herein. Fee requests will be considered on a case by case basis. Mere recitation of time spent, without more, is not adequate. Time sheets may be appended as additional support. The court has discretion to require further justification for all attorney fees.

CHAPTER 4 PROBATE DEPARTMENT

- D. Trusts (Probate Code section 16243). Requests for approval of attorney fees for trustee representation will be considered according to the work actually performed. See Local rule 4.121 – parents are required to support their children. However, the court may take into consideration the timing of such activities and whether the activities took the fiduciary away from their normal income-producing activities.
- G. In the event that a fiduciary is performing services requiring special training and skills (e.g., a CPA preparing tax returns or performing an audit), the court will consider a higher hourly rate on a case-by-case basis. Ordinarily, no more than one (1) hour will be allowed for a court appearance in uncontested matters. CHAPTER 6 CIVIL DEPARTMENT

6.6 COMPLEX LITIGATION

A. Cases that have been designated as complex under California Rule of Court, rules 3.400 to 3.403, shall comply with the following:

1. Filing of papers. All pleadings, motions, applications, briefs and any and all other papers shall be e-filed consistent with Local Rule 1.7. A courtesy hard copy shall be mailed (or emailed if directed by the department) to the assigned judicial officer's department. Cases involving the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) shall comply with California Rules of Court, rules 3.2205, 3.2206, 3.2207, 3.2208.
2. Memorandum and Appendix. All motions and briefs shall conform to California Rules of Court, including rule 3.1113, and indicate on the caption page that this matter has been deemed Complex and is assigned for all purposes to a Complex Litigation Judge. No memorandum may exceed the page limits set forth in the California Rules of Court, unless advance permission is granted by the court.
3. Hearing Schedule. All motions shall be heard on the 2nd and 4th Friday complex law and motion calendar at 8:30 am in the corresponding department of the judicial officer assigned, unless specially set by the judicial officer. Any other matters requiring a hearing or settlement conference shall be heard on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday complex case management calendar at 9:00 am in the corresponding department of the judicial officer assigned or as otherwise directed by the court.
4. Case Management. Case management conferences will be held at 9:00 am on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month in the department of the assigned judge. Counsel for all parties shall meet and confer on all matters set forth in California Rules of Court, rules 3.750 and 3.724(8). In preparation for the case management conference, counsel for the parties shall file a joint written Case Management Conference Statement fifteen (15) court days before the case management conference. If the case management conference is continued, the new conference date is operative. The case management statement must not be the standardized Judicial Council form. It must be in prose and detail. The Case Management Statement must include the following:
 - a. Status of pleadings;
 - b. Status of discovery;
 - c. Status of settlement or mediation;
 - d. Conclusions reached after meet and confer on all matters set forth in California Rules of Court rule 3.750 and rule 3.724(8);
 - e. Anticipated motions;
 - f. Realistic and timely trial date; if a trial date cannot presently be set, state the reasons and propose a realistic next case management conference date;
 - g. Notice of any related case. Cases considered "related" are those that arise out of the same or similar fact situations, the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences as the cause of action which the plaintiff alleges in this complaint. For example, in a class action wage and hour case, the Court must be informed if a named party is currently litigating a case involving other wage and hour allegations; and

CHAPTER 6 CIVIL DEPARTMENT

- h. Any other matters for which the parties may need court rulings or scheduling. Counsel must be prepared to discuss these issues at the case management conference.
5. Discovery. During discovery, counsel should consider designating each exhibit with one number, to be used by all parties, for all uses, including depositions, motions, and trial. Alternatively, have one side use (for example) numbers 1 – 1000 and the other side use numbers 1001 through 2,000, in order to eliminate the use of letters.
- B. Alternatives to Litigation. The court will consider flexible alternatives to costly litigation, such as:
- 1. Severing an issue for a bench trial (with or without stipulated facts). In this way the parties can resolve a disputed fact. This may assist the parties in resolving the case;
 - 2. Informal discovery resolution;
 - 3. Early motions in limine to narrow the issues. The goal would be to allow the parties 8/18/2024 to defer expensive discovery issues and proceedings.
- C. Writ cases. Additional rules applicable to Writs of Mandate are found in Chapter 15.

(Policy statement – Repealed July 1, 2017; Complex Litigation Adopted January 1, 2025)

6.7 CASE DISPOSITION

- A. The court will differentiate between cases according to their anticipated complexity and length. In the discretion of the court, cases will generally be assigned, under these policies and rules, into one of the following categories:

CATEGORY ONE: Category one cases are defined as cases that are expected to reach disposition in no more than twelve (12) months. Generally, these cases would have an estimated length of trial of two (2) days or less and/or present no complex issues.

CATEGORY TWO: Category two cases are defined as cases that are expected to reach disposition in no more than twelve (12) to eighteen (18) months. Generally, these cases would have an estimated length of trial of four (4) days or less and/or present significant legal issues.

CATEGORY THREE: Category three cases are defined as cases that are expected to reach disposition in eighteen (18) to twenty-four (24) months. Generally, these cases would have an estimated length of trial of five (5) court days or more and/or present complex legal or factual issues.

- B. The court may in the interest of justice exempt a general civil case from the case disposition time goals under California Rule of Court, rule 3.713, if it finds the case involves exceptional circumstances that will prevent the court and the parties from meeting the goals and deadlines imposed by the program. In making the determination, the court is guided by California Rules of Court, rules 3.715 and 3.400.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

If the court exempts the case from the case disposition time goals, the court must establish a case progression plan and monitor the case to ensure timely disposition consistent with the exceptional circumstances, with the goal of disposing of the case within three (3) years.

- C. The court recognizes that an early and amicable disposition will minimize costs to the litigants and public. The court will encourage referrals to the court-directed mediation program, early voluntary settlement conferences, and/or other alternative dispute resolution in all cases.
- D. Failure to follow these rules, file a mandatory case management statement or trial management report and/or attend a mandatory case management conference may result in sanctions.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended January 1, 2007; Amended January 1, 2008; Subd. (e) repealed, rule re-lettered January 1, 2009; Amended July 1, 2010; Amended (repealed subd. (b) and re-lettered (c)-(g) to (b)-(f)) July 1, 2012; Amended July 1, 2017; Amended January 1, 2024)

Receipt of a signed copy of the request to vacate or continue initial case management conference and order granting the request is necessary for parties to be excused from the case management conference; if parties do not receive a signed copy of the order granting the request, they must attend the initial case management conference.

(d) repealed, (e) – (h) re- lettered and amended July 1, 2010; Amended (repealed subd. (c) – (d) and (f) – (g), renumbered (e) to (c)) July 1, 2012; (a) Amended July 1, 2016; Amended January 1, 2024)

- A. Trial counsel for each of the parties shall meet and confer prior to trial for purposes of reviewing exhibits, potential witnesses, stipulations, exchange of trial motions, and compliance with this order. CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

“Notice of Referral to Mediation” from the court’s Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) administrator.

B. Referral to Mediation.

1. Referral Process. If the parties accept the court’s determination and agree to mediation, the court’s ADR administrator will refer the case for mediation. Mediators are selected from a list on a rotating basis, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The ADR administrator will select two (2) mediators, one of whom shall be the assigned mediator and other shall be the alternate mediator. If there is a conflict of interest for the assigned mediator, the parties will contact the alternate mediator.
2. Compensation. Mediators shall volunteer their preparation time and the first two (2) hours of mediation. After two (2) hours of mediation, the mediator may either: 1) continue to volunteer their time; or 2) give the parties the option of concluding the mediation or paying the mediator for additional time at an hourly rate of $200. The mediation will continue only if all parties and the mediator agree. After eight (8) hours in one (1) or more mediation sessions, if all parties agree, the mediator may charge their hourly rate or such other rate that all parties agree to pay. In special circumstances for complex cases, requiring substantial preparation time, the parties and the mediator may make other arrangements. No party may offer or give the mediator any gift.
3. Payment. All terms and conditions of payment must be clearly communicated to the parties by the mediator. The parties may agree in writing to pay the fee in other than equal portions. The parties shall pay the mediator directly.
4. Mediation Agreement. A MEDIATION AGREEMENT between the assigned mediator and the parties shall have the form set forth in Appendix F and shall set forth the terms of the engagement, including, but not limited to, a specific enumeration of the pro bono hours, the parties’ option to continue mediation on a specific fee basis after the pro bono hours have been spent, confidentiality, disclosure of conflicts of interest, and the incorporation by reference of the Mediation Program local rules. The “Mediation Agreement” shall be fully signed before the commencement of the mediation session.

C. Timing and Scheduling the Mediation.

1. Parties’ Duty to Determine Mediator Conflicts of Interest and to Deliver Documents to the Mediator. Within twenty (20) days of receiving the Notice of Referral to Mediation, the parties shall confer with the assigned mediator to determine whether conflicts of interest exist. They shall also deliver a complete copy of their case management statements to the mediator.
2. Scheduling by Mediator. Promptly after being appointed to a case, the parties shall contact the mediator and discuss the timing of scheduling mediation. Counsel shall then confer with their clients and each other, and counsel representing plaintiff shall then inform the mediator of potential dates that are available to the parties and their counsel. The mediator shall then fix the date and place of the mediation within the deadlines set forth by these rules and within their scheduling needs. Counsel shall respond promptly to and cooperate fully with the mediator with respect to scheduling the mediation session.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

3. Deadline for Conducting Mediation. Unless otherwise ordered, the mediation shall be completed at least thirty (30) days prior to the parties' next case management conference or mandatory settlement conference.

D. Written Mediation Statements.

1. Time for Submission. No later than five (5) calendar days before the first mediation session, each party shall submit directly to the mediator, and shall serve on all other parties, a written mediation statement.
2. Prohibition Against Filing. Mediation statements shall not be filed with the court.
3. Content of Statement. The statements shall be concise, include any information that may be useful to the mediator, and shall:
 - a. Identify, by name and title or status of, the persons(s) with decision-making authority, who, in addition to counsel, will attend the mediation as representative(s) of the party, and persons connected with a party opponent (including an insurer representative) whose presence might substantially improve the utility of the mediation or the prospects for settlement;
 - b. Describe briefly the substance of the suit addressing the party's view of the issues and liability of damages and discussing the key evidence;
 - c. Identify the discovery or motions that promise to contribute most to equipping the parties for meaningful settlement negotiations;
 - d. Describe the history and current status of any settlement negotiations and provide any other information about any interests or considerations not described elsewhere in the statement that might be pertinent to settlement; and
 - e. Include copies of documents likely to make the mediation more productive or improve settlement prospects.

- #### E. Contact with Mediator before the Mediation. Before the mediation, the mediator may allow the parties to submit an additional confidential written statement for the mediator only or may discuss the case in confidence with a party and the party's lawyer during a telephone conversation. The mediator shall not disclose any party's confidential communications without the party's permission.

F. Attendance at the Mediation Session.

1. Parties. All named parties and their counsel are required to attend the mediation session and participate in good faith. This requirement reflects the court's view that the principal values of mediation include affording litigants the opportunity to articulate directly to other litigants and a neutral mediator their positions and arguments and to be heard first hand. Mediation also enables parties to collaborate in the search for mutually agreeable solutions.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

- a. A person with authority to settle the case must be present at the mediation.
 - b. Corporation or Other Entity. A party other than a natural person (e.g., a corporation or an association) satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person (other than outside counsel) who has authority to settle and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case.
 - c. Government Entity. A unit or agency of government satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person who has, to the greatest extent feasible, authority to settle, and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case, the governmental unit's position, and the procedures and policies under which the governmental unit decides whether to accept proposed settlements. If the action is brought by a governmental entity on behalf of one (1) or more individuals, at least one (1) such individual also shall attend.
2. Counsel. Each party shall be accompanied at the mediation by the lawyer who will be primarily responsible for handling the trial of the matter.
 3. Insurers. Insurer representatives who are necessary are required to attend in person.
 4. Request to be Excused. Only the assigned mediator may excuse party from the mediation. A person who is required to attend mediation may be excused from attending in person only after demonstrating to the mediator that their personal attendance would impose an extraordinary or otherwise unjustifiable hardship. Any party requesting to be excused must contact the mediator at least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled mediation to arrange how the party will be able to participate without appearing in person. All arrangements must be approved by the assigned mediator.
 5. Remote Participation. A person excused from appearing in person at the mediation session shall be available to participate remotely.
 6. Failure to comply with this rule may result in an award of attorney fees or sanctions pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.30 and Code of Civil Procedure section 128.5.
- G. Procedure at Mediation.
1. Procedure. The mediation shall be informal. Mediators shall have discretion to structure the mediation to maximize the benefits of the process.
 2. Separate Caucuses. The mediator may hold separate, private caucuses with each side or each lawyer or, if the parties agree, with the clients only. The mediator may not disclose communications made during such caucuses to another party or counsel without the consent of the party who made the communication.
- H. Confidentiality.
1. Confidential Treatment. Except as provided in subdivision 2 below entitled "Limited Exceptions to Confidentiality," the mediator, all counsel and the parties, and any other persons attending the mediation shall treat all statements made at the session, and documents prepared for and created at the session as “confidential information.” The confidential information shall not be:

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

- a. Disclosed to anyone not involved in the litigation;
 - b. Disclosed to the court; or
 - c. Used for any purpose, including impeachment, in any pending or future proceeding in this court.
2. Limited Exceptions to Confidentiality. This rule does not prohibit:

 - b. A report to or any inquiry by the court regarding a possible violation of these Mediation Program rules;
 - c. Any participant or the mediator from responding to an appropriate request for information duly made by the persons authorized by the court to monitor or evaluate the court’s Mediation Program; or
 - d. Disclosures as are otherwise required by law.
3. Confidentiality Agreement. The mediator may ask the parties and all persons attending the mediation to sign a confidentiality agreement on a form provided by the court or included in the Mediation Agreement utilized by the mediator.
- I. Follow Up. At the close of the mediation session, the mediator and the parties shall jointly determine whether it would be appropriate to schedule a follow up session. The follow up could include, but need not be limited to, written or telephonic reports that the parties might make to one another or to the mediator, the exchange of specified kinds of information, or another mediation session.
- J. Certification of Session. Within ten (10) days of the close of each mediation session the mediator shall report to the court on the status of the mediation by filing with the court the STATEMENT OF AGREEMENT OR NONAGREEMENT (ADR-100)
- K. Membership on the Mediator Panel.
1. The court has established an ADR committee pursuant to California Rules of Court, rules 10.782 and 10.783. The committee is responsible for overseeing the ADR programs for general civil cases, including the responsibilities specified in California Rules of Court, rule 3.813(b) relating to the court’s judicial arbitration program.
 2. The court shall maintain a panel of mediators. The ADR committee shall review applications from potential mediators, evaluations of panel members, and make recommendations to the supervising civil judge on the designation of panel mediators. The

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

ADR committee shall designate the panel, and may add or remove mediators from the panel at any time.

3. Any person with a juris doctorate degree who has completed the training required by the Dispute Resolution Program Act for mediators may apply to the ADR committee for membership on the court-directed mediation panel. Applications are available on the court's website and should be submitted to the ADR administrator at the Monterey County Superior Court. If the ADR committee determines that the applicant is qualified for membership on the mediation panel, the ADR committee shall add the applicant's name to the list of members by January 1 of the following year.

L. Procedures for Handling Complaint about Court-Program Mediators

1. Application. The rules in this chapter establish the court's procedures for receiving, investigating, and resolving complaints about mediators in the court's mediation program for general civil cases, as required by California Rules of Court, rule 3.868. Nothing in these rules should be interpreted in a manner inconsistent with California Rules of Court, rules 3.865 – 3.872 or as limiting the court's inherent or other authority, in its sole and absolute discretion, to determine who may be included on or removed from its list of mediators or who may be recommended, selected, appointed, or compensated as a mediator by the court. These rules also do not limit the court's authority to follow other procedures or take other actions to ensure the quality of mediators who serve in the court's mediation program in contexts other than when addressing a complaint. The failure to follow a requirement or procedure in these rules will not invalidate any action taken by the court in addressing a complaint.
2. Definitions. As used in this chapter:
 - a. The "rules of conduct" means the "Rules of Conduct for Mediators in Court- Connected Mediation Programs for Civil Cases" set out in California Rules of Court, rules 3.850 – 3.860.
 - b. "Court-program mediator" means a mediator who:
 - i. Has agreed to be included on the court's list or panel of mediators for general civil cases and is notified by the court or the parties of their selection to mediate a case within the court's mediation program; or
 - ii. Has agreed to mediate a general civil case in the court's mediation program after being notified by the court or the parties that the mediator was recommended, selected, or appointed by the court or will be compensated by the court to mediate that case.
 - c. "Inquiry" means an unwritten communication presented to the court's complaint coordinator indicating that a mediator may have violated a provision of the rules of conduct.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

- d. "Complaint" means a written communication presented to the court's complaint coordinator indicating that a mediator may have violated a provision of the rules of conduct.
- e. "Complainant" means the person who makes or presents a complaint.
- f. "Complaint coordinator" means the person designated by the supervising civil judge to receive complaints and inquiries about the conduct of mediators.
- g. "Complaint proceeding" means all of the proceedings that take place as part of presenting, receiving, reviewing, responding to, investigating, and acting on any specific inquiry or complaint.
- h. "Mediation communication" means any statement that is made or any writing that is prepared for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to a mediation or a mediation consultation, as defined in Evidence Code section 1115, and includes any communications, negotiations, and settlement discussions between participants in the course of a mediation or a mediation consultation.

3. Confidentiality.

- a. Preserving the confidentiality of mediation communications.

All complaint proceedings will be conducted in a manner that preserves the confidentiality of mediation communications, including but not limited to the confidentiality of any communications between the mediator and individual mediation participants or subgroups of mediation participants.

- b. Confidentiality of complaint proceedings.

All complaint proceedings will occur in private and will be kept confidential. No information or records concerning the receipt, investigation, or resolution of an inquiry or a complaint will be open to the public or disclosed outside the course of the complaint proceeding except as provided in California Rules of Court, rule 3.871(d) or as otherwise required by law.

4. Submission of inquiries and complaints to the complaint coordinator.

All inquiries and complaints should be submitted or referred to the complaint coordinator.

5. Addressing inquiries.

If the complaint coordinator receives an inquiry, the coordinator must inform the person making the inquiry that the complaint procedure provides for investigation of written complaints only and that the person should submit a written complaint if the person wants the court to conduct an investigation or take action. If the person does not submit a complaint, the complaint coordinator may prepare a written summary of the inquiry.

6. Acknowledgment and preliminary review of complaints.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

a. Acknowledgment of complaints.

When the complaint coordinator receives a complaint, the coordinator will send the complainant a written acknowledgment of this receipt.

b. Preliminary review of complaints.

i. The complaint coordinator will review each complaint to determine whether it warrants investigation or can be promptly, informally, and amicably resolved or closed. The coordinator may:

a) Informally contact the complainant to obtain clarification or additional information or to provide information that may address the complainant's concern.

b) Communicate informally with the mediator to obtain the mediator's perspectives.

ii. If it appears to the complaint coordinator that the mediator may have violated a provision of the rules of conduct, the complaint coordinator must inform the mediator about the complaint and give the mediator an opportunity to provide an informal response.

iii. The complaint coordinator may close a complaint without initiating an investigation if:

a) The complaint is withdrawn by the complainant; or

b) The complainant, the mediator, and the complaint coordinator have agreed on a resolution to the complaint.

iv. With the consent of the presiding judge or the supervising civil judge's designated judicial officer, the complaint coordinator may close a complaint without initiating an investigation if:

a) No violation of the rules of conduct appears to have occurred or the complaint is without sufficient merit to warrant an investigation; or

b) The conduct alleged would constitute a very minor violation of the rules of conduct, the coordinator has discussed the complaint with the mediator, and the mediator has provided an acceptable explanation or response.

c. Notification of closure

7. Appointing an investigator or a complaint committee.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

The supervising civil judge will appoint an investigator who has experience as a mediator and is familiar with the rules of conduct, or a complaint committee that includes at least one (1) such individual, to investigate and make recommendations concerning any complaint that is not resolved or closed by the complaint coordinator as a result of the preliminary review.

The complaint coordinator will provide the investigator or complaint committee with a summary of the preliminary review that includes:

- i. A copy of the complaint;
 - ii. A copy or summary of any response from the mediator;
 - iii. A list of any violation of the rules of conduct that it appears may have occurred; and
 - iv. Copies of any previous complaints about the mediator and any written summaries of inquiries that are relevant to the current complaint.
- c. Initiation by the complaint coordinator. The complaint coordinator may initiate an investigation based on information received from any source, including an inquiry, indicating that a mediator may have violated a provision of the rules of conduct. To initiate the investigation, the complaint coordinator must refer the information received to an investigator or complaint committee with a list of the violations of the rules of conduct that it appears may have occurred.
 - d. Mediator's notice and opportunity to respond.
 - i. The investigator or complaint committee must provide the mediator with a copy of the materials provided to the investigator or complaint committee by the committee by the complaint coordinator under (b) or (c).
 - ii. The mediator will be given an opportunity to respond to the complaint and the list of apparent violations.
 - e. Preparing report and recommendation.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

The investigator or complaint committee will conduct the investigation that the investigator or complaint committee considers appropriate. Thereafter, the investigator or complaint committee will prepare a written report that summarizes the investigation and states the investigator's or complaint committee's recommendation concerning the final decision on the complaint. The investigator or complaint committee may recommend one (1) or more actions that are permissible under California Rules of Court, rule 3.870.

f. Informing mediator of recommendation.

The investigator or complaint committee may inform the mediator of its recommendation and inquire whether the mediator accepts that recommendation. If the mediator accepts the recommendation, the investigator's or complaint committee's report must indicate this.

g. Submitting report and recommendation.

The investigator or complaint committee must submit its report and recommendation to the complaint coordinator. The complaint coordinator must promptly forward a copy of the report and recommendation to the supervising civil judge.

9. Final decision on a complaint that was investigated.

a) Affirmatively adopting the investigator's or complaint committee's recommendation as the final decision on the complaint; or

b) Directing a different action that is permissible under California Rules of Court, rule 3.870.

c. Notification of final action.

CHAPTER 6

CIVIL DEPARTMENT

The complaint coordinator must promptly notify the complainant and the mediator in writing of the final action taken by the court on the complaint.

d. Authorized disclosures.

After the decision on a complaint, the supervising civil judge may authorize the public disclosure of information or records concerning the complaint proceeding that do not reveal any mediation communications. The disclosures that may be authorized under this subdivision include the name of a mediator against whom action has been taken, the action taken, and the general basis on which the action was taken. In determining whether to authorize the disclosure of information or records under this subdivision, the supervising civil judge or designee should consider the purposes of the confidentiality of complaint proceedings stated in California Rules of Court, rule 3.871.

10. Interim suspension pending a final decision on a complaint.

If the preliminary review or the investigation indicates that a mediator may pose a threat of harm to mediation participants or to the integrity of the court's mediation program, the supervising civil judge or the other judicial officer or committee designated by the supervising civil judge to make the final decision about the action to be taken on any complaint may suspend the mediator from the court's panel or list pending final decision on the complaint. The complaint coordinator may make a recommendation to the supervising civil judge or the designee regarding such a suspension.

$10,000.01 to $25,000.00	12 percent or $1,500.00 – whichever is greater

On judgments in excess of $25,000.00 the attorney's fee may be ten percent (10%) of the principal amount between $25,000.00 and $50,000.00, and five percent (5%) of any additional sum.

Plaintiff shall have the right, in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure section 585(a), to have the attorney fee fixed by the court in an amount different than as set forth above.

(Adopted October 1, 1998)

8.2 REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY FEES IN UNLAWFUL DETAINER ACTIONS

If the obligation sued upon provides for recovery of reasonable attorney fees, the court may allow a $450.00 fee to the prevailing party in an unlawful detainer default hearing. In unusual cases, attorneys may apply to the court, by motion, for increased fees.

9.3 PROCEDURES, FILING AND FEES

CHAPTER 9

APPELLATE DIVISION

A. Procedural rules.

General rules applicable to appellate division proceedings are set forth in the California Rules of Court, rule 8.800 et seq.

B. Filing notices, petitions, motions and applications.

Parties shall file all notices, petitions, motions and applications regarding matters within the appellate division's jurisdiction at the Salinas courthouse.

Parties shall address all petitions, motions and applications to the presiding appellate judge.

C. Filing fee in criminal cases.

No filing fees are required for filing a notice of appeal in a criminal case.

No fee is required in a criminal case for filing a writ petition in the appellate division, although such a proceeding is civil in nature for some purposes. (Bravo v Cabell (1974) 11 Cal.3d 834, 840; see California Code of Civil Procedure sections 22–23.)

D. Filing fee in civil cases.

The fee for filing a notice of appeal or a writ petition in a limited civil case is three hundred thirty dollars ($330) if the amount in controversy is more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000)

The fee for filing a notice of appeal or a writ petition in a limited civil case is two hundred five dollars ($205) where the amount in controversy is less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). (Government Code section 70621.)

E. Fee waivers in civil cases.

At the time of filing a notice of appeal or a petition for extraordinary relief, a party must file the required fee or a request to waive court fees.

When filing a notice of appeal, a party is not required to submit a new application for waiver of court fees if the trial court previously issued a waiver, and the waiver remains in effect, that included all appellate fees. Otherwise, a party must submit a request for a fee waiver on the Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001).

To request a fee waiver in a writ proceeding, a party must submit a Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001). (California Rules of Court, rule 8.818.)

(Adopted July 1, 2017)

9.4 RECORD ON APPEAL

A. Record of written documents.

CHAPTER 9 APPELLATE DIVISION

The court elects to use the original trial court file in lieu of a clerk's transcript. (California Rules of Court, rules 8.833, 8.863, 8.914.)

B. Statement on appeal.

The trial court judge shall not order the preparation of a transcript as the record of oral proceedings in lieu of correcting a proposed statement on appeal. (California Rules of Court, rules 8.837(d)(6)(B), 8.869(d)(6)(B), 8.916(d)(6)(B).)

C. Transcript costs in criminal cases.

Transcripts are prepared at court cost where the appellant is the People, a defendant represented by appointed counsel in the trial court, or the trial court determines that the defendant is indigent and orders that the defendant receive the transcript without cost. All other appellants must remit payment after receiving a cost estimate from the court clerk before a transcript is prepared.

D. Transcripts in criminal appeals.

Before a transcript is prepared at court cost, the trial court shall hold a hearing and determine what portion of the oral record is required for meaningful consideration of the potential issues on appeal. (California Rules of Court, rule 8.865(b).)

California Rules of Court, rules 8.867 or 8.920, set forth the limited record normally necessary when a party appeals a pre-trial ruling on a motion to suppress evidence under Penal Code section 1538.5, a demurrer, probation conditions, or any other appealable order other than a ruling on a new trial motion.

When appealing a final judgment of conviction, unless the trial court orders otherwise at the hearing or the parties file a stipulation, the oral record shall include the following:

1. The oral proceedings on the entry of any plea other than a not guilty plea;
2. The oral proceedings on any motion in limine;
3. The oral proceedings at trial, excluding voir dire examination of jurors and any opening statement;

 - d. Any comment on the evidence by the court to the jury (misdemeanors only). (California Rules of Court, rules 8.865, 8.866, 8.918, 8.919.)

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended January 1, 2006; Amended January 1, 2007; Amended January 1, 2010; Amended July 1, 2010; Amended January 1, 2011; Rule 9.03 renumbered to Rule 9.4 and amended July 1, 2017; Amended January 1, 2024)

9.5 BRIEFS

Any party filing an original brief must also submit three (3) copies.

(Amended January 1, 2007; Amended January 1, 2009; Amended January 1, 2010; Rule 9.04 renumbered to 9.05 and amended July 1, 2017)

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

10.1 LAW AND MOTION

- A. Law and Motion Attorney and Self-Represented Calendars. There shall be a Law and Motion attorney-represented and self-represented calendar which shall be heard at the time and place set by the Court.
1. Family Law Trials and Special Hearings: All cases set by a Family Law Judge for special hearing or trial are hereby assigned to that judge for said special hearing or trial. If, in the discretion of the Presiding Judge, Supervising Civil Judge, or a judicial delegate, exigent circumstances in the case require a hearing or trial when a Family Law Judge is unavailable (e.g., because of pressing custody issues) the hearing or trial may be otherwise scheduled. In such event, a judge shall be assigned to hear such special hearing or trial and the parties shall be promptly notified of the assignment.
 2. Meet and Confer: The moving party and the responding party, or their attorneys if represented, shall each contact the other and attempt to resolve the issues raised in the moving papers prior to the date set for hearing, unless to do so would violate a restraining order.
 3. Continuances: The parties may, with good cause, stipulate once to a continuance for a reasonable amount of time. Any subsequent requests for continuances are subject to approval by the assigned Family Court Judge. All requests must be submitted at least a full 48 hours prior to the date of hearing. The request must indicate good cause for the continuance and state the position of the opposing party regarding the continuance as well as the requested date.
 4. Matters filed in the Family Law Division are routinely assigned to judges and court commissioners. Except as provided in Code of Civil Procedure section 259(e) and Family Code section 4251(b), matters assigned to a court commissioner require that the parties stipulate to the commissioner hearing the matter. If a party refuses to stipulate to having a case heard by a commissioner, the commissioner may hear any temporary matter pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 259(e). A judge of the Superior Court will thereafter approve, reject, or modify the findings and conclusions of the commissioner. In the absence of the assigned judge or court commissioner, matters may be assigned to a judge pro tempore acting as a temporary judge. Failure to stipulate to a judge pro tempore will result in the matter being continued to the next available calendar date.
 5. The Court may issue a tentative ruling in advance of the Family Law and Motion calendar, pursuant to Local Rule 7.9.

B. TIMELY FILING OF PAPERS

1. The timely filing of papers must conform to the Rules of Court and the Code of Civil Procedure. (California Rules of Court, rule 3.1300; Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1005 & 1013; Fam. Code, § 242.)
2. Orders Shortening Time. Orders shortening time should not be requested unless there is a hardship or emergency requiring prompt action. All requests must be accompanied by a written declaration establishing good cause. Notice of the request must be given to opposing counsel, if any, within twenty-four (24) hours, except for good cause. A declaration must be submitted stating the fact of notice or good cause for its absence.

3. Responsive and Reply Documents. Responsive and reply documents must be filed and served as follows:
 - a. Request for Orders without temporary orders attached must be filed at least nine (9) court days prior to the hearing for responsive declarations and at least five (5) court days prior to the hearing for reply documents.
 - b. Request for Orders with temporary orders attached must be filed at least five (5) court days prior to the hearing for responsive declarations and at least two (2) court days prior to hearing for reply declarations.
 - c. Orders shortening time will set forth the filing requirements for responsive and reply declarations.

At the time of the hearing, the court may refuse to consider responsive or reply documents which are not filed and served within the time frames specified in this rule.

C. EX-PARTE APPLICATIONS

The timely filing of papers must conform to the California Rules of Court and Code of Civil Procedure as referenced in the authority stated herein. (California Rules of Court, rules 5.151, 5.165, 5.167, 5.169; Code of Civil Procedure section 575.2.)

D. SPECIAL SETTINGS

All matters requiring more than ten (10) minutes must be specially set. Calendaring of specially set hearings shall be done by a family law bench officer. A request for a specially set hearing must be calendared by a Request for Order or, if a matter is already set on the law and motion calendar, the request should be made at the time already scheduled for hearing. Advance notice should be given to the court that a specially set hearing will be requested by written declaration if possible. Requests for specially set hearings should not be made unless the matter is ready to be heard and should include a time estimate regarding the length of hearing requested. Continuances will not be granted except upon exceptional good cause.

E. USE OF DECLARATIONS

1. In all law and motion matters, declarations shall be submitted with pleadings. Testimony shall also be received at hearing or trial unless the court makes a finding that there is good cause to refuse to receive live testimony under Family Code section 217, as set forth in the California Rules of Court, rule 5.113.
2. Evidence or Argument. Evidence or argument will be heard only on issues clearly raised in timely filed pleadings.
3. Review Hearing Declarations/Supplemental Declarations.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

- a. If a matter is set for a review hearing, a declaration describing the current status of the matter shall be submitted by each party as set forth in the next paragraph. If no declaration is filed, the matter may be dropped at the discretion of the court.
- b. Declarations for review hearings must be filed and served no less than five (5) court days prior to the date set for review hearing.
- c. The court may decline to consider declarations or reply declarations which are not filed and received within the time frame specified in this rule.

F. ATTORNEY FEES AND EXPERT WITNESS FEES

Orders for attorney fees, costs or expert witness fees by one party from the other will not be deferred until the time of trial except upon agreement or a showing of good cause. It is the policy of the court to support each party's right to be adequately represented pending trial. No temporary award of attorney fees or costs shall be made without a showing of need and ability to pay, and until sufficient proof of each party's income has been filed with the court. (Family Code section 2030 et seq.; California Rules of Court, rule 5.427.)

G. REMOTE APPEARANCE IN FAMILY LAW ACTION

Remote appearances in all family law cases, including domestic violence restraining order cases, except Title IV-D child support proceedings, are governed by Local Rule 1.8.

H. ELECTRONICALLY STORED EVIDENCE IN FAMILY LAW PROCEEDINGS (INCLUDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROCEEDINGS)

Evidence stored on removable storage devices, including but not limited to flash drives, memory sticks and compact discs, may not be filed with the court. Removable storage devices, however, when properly marked as exhibits, may be received and admitted into evidence during a hearing or trial if ordered by the court.

Any party wishing to offer into evidence an electronic sound or sound-and-video recording must comply with California Rules of Court, rule 2.1040. The party wishing to offer a recording must provide the equipment necessary to listen to and/or view the proposed evidence. Except as provided in Rule 2.1040, the party offering the recording into evidence must provide the opposing party with a copy of the recording and any required transcript prior to the hearing. See also Local Rule 1.8(D).

(Adopted January 1, 2006; Amended January 1, 2007; Amended July 1, 2012; Amended July 1, 2017; Amended July 1, 2020; Elisors – Repealed and Incorporated into Local Rule 1.6, Renumbered January 1, 2023; Amended July 1, 2023; Amended January 1, 2024, Subds. (A)1 and (A)3 deleted (See Rule 1.4(F)), and amended July 1, 2024; Amended January 1, 2025)

10.2 SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

A. MANDATORY AND NON-MANDATORY

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

All long cause (more than one (1) day in length) family law trials will be set for mandatory settlement conference by the court. Upon request of both parties and court order, short cause trials (one (1) day or less in length) may be set for settlement conference. With agreement of counsel and advance permission of the court, litigants and/or their attorneys may attend settlement conferences remotely pursuant to Local Rule 1.8. Arrangements shall be made at least five (5) court days in advance.

B. MEET AND CONFER

Counsel shall confer with opposing counsel, or opposing party if that party is unrepresented by counsel, no less than five (5) court days prior to the first date set for settlement conference. Counsel shall inform the court of all issues that can be determined by stipulation and those remaining for determination by the court in the settlement conference statement filed with the court. The settlement conference statement shall also state that the parties have complied with this rule. Non-compliance may result in the matter being dropped from calendar.

C. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE STATEMENT

1. Service. Settlement conference statements shall be served and filed with the clerk of the court no later than five (5) court days preceding the settlement conference hearing. Failure to comply with this rule may result in an award of attorney fees or sanctions pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.30, and Code of Civil Procedure section 575.2.
2. Contents. The statement must set forth the following information as to the party filing, as well as to the opposing party, to the extent known or contended:
 - a. Separate Property. List each item of separate property. If characterization of property is uncontested, list only its current market value. If characterization of property is contested, list the date it was acquired, the basis upon which it is claimed that it is separate rather than community property, the current market value, the nature, extent and terms of payment of any encumbrance against the property and the manner in which title is presently vested.
 - b. Community Property. List each item of community property. If characterization of property is uncontested, list only its current market value and the nature, extent, and terms of payment of any encumbrance against the property. If characterization of property is contested, list the date it was acquired, the basis upon which it is claimed as community rather than separate property, the current market value, the nature, extent, and terms of payment of any encumbrance against the property and the manner in which title is presently vested.
 - c. Funds Held by Others. To the extent that either separate property or community property consists of funds held by others, such as insurance policies, pensions, profit sharing, or other trust funds, the statement shall fully identify the policy or fund, its present cash value, and any terms or conditions imposed upon withdrawal of funds.
 - d. Tracing. If a segregation of community property and separate property interests in a single asset is in issue, the statement shall set forth in detail, including dates, values, and dollar amounts, the transactions which form the basis of the tracing.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

- e. Current Obligations. Separately list all debts and obligations of the parties which constitute liabilities of the community and debts and obligations which are the separate liabilities of the respective parties. Specify the identity of the creditor, the date upon which the debt was incurred, the balance currently due, the terms of payment and the security, if any, held by the creditor.
 - f. Proposal for Settlement. Set forth a proposal for settlement, including proposals regarding custody, visitation, division of the community property and liabilities, reimbursements, credits, payment of costs, and payment of attorney's fees. In addition, specify each party's contentions as to the amount and duration of child and spousal support. The purpose of this rule is to promote amicable settlement and thorough preparation of domestic relations matters. Full disclosure of all contested issues will aid the court in suggesting a fair settlement, ease tension between the parties and help to provide a more meaningful resolution. Counsel should confer prior to the time set for settlement conference or trial to identify issues which can be resolved by stipulation and those which must be decided by the court.
3. Declaration of Disclosure. A declaration regarding service of a preliminary declaration of disclosure shall be filed by each party verifying that there has been an exchange of information regarding assets, liabilities and income as required in Family Code sections 2100 – 2110.
 4. Current Income and Expense Declaration. A current income and expense declaration shall be filed concurrently with the settlement conference statement. The parties' last three (3) months earnings and deduction statements shall be attached. (California Rules of Court, rules 5.260(a)(3), 5.427(d)(1).)
 5. Setting at the court's discretion. The court may exercise its discretion to set settlement conferences, case management conferences, and trial setting conferences. In its discretion, the court may have a settlement conference heard as either a contested or uncontested matter.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 1999; Amended July 1, 2000; Amended July 1, 2001; Amended January 1, 2007; Amended July 1, 2012; Amended July 1, 2017; Amended January 1, 2024; Amended January 1, 2025)

10.3 CHILD AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT

A. CHILD SUPPORT

The amount of child support awarded will be determined according to the guidelines set forth in Family Code section 4050 et seq. The percentage of time each party spends with the child(ren) shall be calculated by counting the number of hours that the children spend with each party divided by the total hours for the time period in question.

1. Credit for Time Spent with Others. The parent who bears primary responsibility for the child, even during periods when the child is with others, will be attributed with the hourly credit for that time.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

B. SPOUSAL SUPPORT

Temporary spousal support will ordinarily be determined in accordance with Santa Clara County's Temporary Spousal Support Guidelines; the court may order non-guideline temporary spousal support upon a showing of good cause. The court may order a party to pay for the permanent support of the other party in an amount, and for a period of time, that the court determines just and reasonable, based upon the standard of living established during the marriage, taking into consideration the factors specified in Family Code section 4320.

C. FINANCIAL DECLARATIONS AND GUIDELINE SUPPORT CALCULATIONS

Income and expense declarations (FL-150) must be filled out completely by both parties. The last three (3) months earnings and deduction statements shall be attached to each party's initial filing of their pleadings. In addition, no later than five (5) court days prior to the hearing to determine support, a computer support printout from one of the guideline support calculators certified by the Judicial Council (available at: <https://www.courts.ca.gov/48702.htm>) must be filed by both moving and responding parties when child support or temporary spousal or partner support is at issue (but not permanent spousal or partner support). The court may waive the requirement of a computer support printout upon a showing of good cause. A current income and expense declaration must be on file any time there is a request for a monetary award from the other party. (Family Code section 3830, California Rules of Court, rules 5.92, 5.260, 5.275, 5.427.)

D. DEPARTMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES

All cases in which the Department of Child Support Services is involved in establishing or enforcing child support shall be set on the Department of Child Support Services Calendar when appropriate.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 1999; Amended July 1, 2000; Amended July 1, 2003; Amended January 1, 2008; Retitled subd. C July 1, 2012; Amended July 1, 2013; Amended July 1, 2017; Amended January 1, 2024; Amended January 1, 2025)

10.4 OFFICE OF FAMILY LAW FACILITATOR / SELF HELP CENTER

The family law facilitator / Self Help Center manager shall perform the duties listed in Family Code section 10004, and may perform any and all of the duties listed in Family Code section 10005 as directed by the court.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2000; Amended July 1, 2017)

10.5 PARENT ORIENTATION

A. The Court shall provide access to an orientation or parent education, pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 5.210(d)(1)(B) that facilitates the parties' informed and self-determined decision making about:

1. The types of disputed issues generally discussed in mediation and the range of possible outcomes from the mediation process;

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

2. The mediation process, including the mediator's role; the circumstances that may lead the mediator to make a particular recommendation to the court; limitations on the confidentiality of the process; and access to information communicated by the parties or included in the mediation file;
 3. How to make best use of information drawn from current research and professional experience to facilitate the mediation process, parties' communication, and co-parenting relationship; and
 4. How to address each child's current and future developmental needs.
- B. Parties shall complete the orientation program prior to their first Family Court Services Mediation or Child Custody Recommending Counseling session, and repeat the program at the Court's discretion, pursuant to California Rule of Court 5.210(e)(2).

(Adopted July 1, 1999; Co-parenting workshop - Repealed July 1, 2012, Amended January 1, 2022)

10.6 MEDIATION OF CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION DISPUTES

A. PREAMBLE

Mediation of child custody and visitation is a program administered by the Office of Family Court Services.

Mediation is provided for certain proceedings involving the custody and visitation of a minor. These proceedings include: 1) Dissolution and Legal Separation (Family Code section 3170), 2) Stepparent Visitation (Family Code sections 3171, 3172, 3185); 3) Grandparent Visitation (Family Code sections 3171, 3176, 3185); 4) Domestic Violence (Family Code sections 3170, 3181, 3182); 5) Paternity (Family Code sections 3172, 7600 et seq.); 6) Child Support Enforcement (Family Code section 17404); 7) Termination of Parental Rights (Family Code section 7660); and 8) Guardianships (Probate Code section 1500 et seq.).

B. TYPES OF MEDIATION

The court offers "Mediation" (confidential mediation) and "Child Custody Recommending Counseling" (recommending mediation). The following sections set forth the general and special rules applicable to Mediation and Child Custody Recommending Counseling. Mediation and Child Custody Recommending Counseling shall follow California Rule of Court 5.210 for court-connected child custody mediation.

C. MANDATORY MEDIATION

Family Code sections 3170 and 3175 require that when it appears on the face of a petition or application or other pleading for an order or modification of an order that custody, temporary custody, or visitation rights are contested, the matter must be set for mediation of the contested issues prior to or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of mediation is the reduction of acrimony which may exist between the parties, the development of an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents, and to settle visitation issues for all parties to promote the best interests of the minor (Family Code section 3161).

CHAPTER 10 FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

D. COST OF MEDIATION

There is no direct cost to either party for the use of the Family Court Services' Mediation Program. The program is paid for by a portion of the filing fee for dissolution actions and a portion of the cost of a marriage license. The parties are free to retain a mediator of their own choice who is not employed or contracted by the court and encouraged to attempt to resolve the dispute without court intervention. Mediation services provided by the court are limited and should be used only when there is an actual dispute that cannot be resolved by the parties themselves or with the assistance of their lawyers. The court will not pay for the services of an independent mediator or family counselor unless such services are provided through the court. Failure to reschedule or cancel timely as stated in Local rule 10.6(E) may result in the imposition of a monetary sanction.

E. GENERAL RULES

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

- e. Any information that would affect scheduling, such as parties coming from out of town, or the need for an interpreter.
3. Rescheduling: Rescheduling of a mediation appointment is discouraged. However, if there is a compelling reason, an appointment may be rescheduled if the parties contact the Family Court Services Office at least five (5) calendar days before the appointment date and rescheduling will not result in a hearing date being continued.
4. Cancellation: If the parties wish to cancel a mediation appointment because the dispute has been settled or if both sides agree to cancel the mediation for good reason, at least five (5) calendar days' notice must be given to the mediation service to avoid the possibility of sanctions.
5. Intake Forms: The parties shall complete and submit intake forms to the Family Court Services office prior to their first Family Court Services session and prior to any subsequent session in which their information has substantially changed.
6. Review of Records: The mediators shall review the court's file in the case and the parties' Intake Forms, as available, prior to mediation to familiarize themselves with existing or temporary orders regarding custody and visitation. If there are other written agreements relating to custody or visitation which are not in the court file and which would assist the mediator, for example orders from another jurisdiction, copies should be delivered to the Family Court Services Office prior to the first session.
7. Mediation Where a Request for Order is Pending: If mediation has not been completed nor an agreement reached prior to the date set for hearing or trial of the issue, the court may refer the case for mediation at the hearing. The court may make temporary custody or visitation orders, or continue existing orders pending completion of mediation. All temporary orders pending mediation are without prejudice and should not be cited as a basis for permanent orders. Before arranging mediation, the parties or their attorneys should have discussed custody and visitation issues, or made reasonable attempts to do so, and concluded that the issues cannot be resolved by the parties themselves.
8. In-Court Intervention: The court may ask the mediator to see the parties at the time of hearing (or within 48 hours if orders are requested ex parte) to negotiate temporary orders until mediation can be scheduled to resolve any dispute related to permanent custody and visitation orders. This intervention is not confidential, and the Mediator will report verbally and/or in writing the outcome of the session to the Judicial Officer immediately following In-Court Intervention. Attorneys and parties are urged to arrange for mediation sufficiently in advance of the hearing to allow it to be completed prior to the date of the hearing.
9. Remote Appearance: Family Court Services will attempt to accommodate parties who are coming from out of the area if given sufficient advance notice. If a case requires mediation and one of the parties resides more than a 40-minute commute from the Monterey Courthouse, mediation by phone or remote technology may be requested. In exceptional circumstances remote technology or telephone mediation may be scheduled at the discretion of the mediator or staff of Family Court Services, or upon court order. Remote appearance may be required for cases involving domestic violence.

10. Ex Parte Communication: In child custody proceedings, Family Code section 216 recognizes specific circumstances in which ex parte communication is permitted between court-connected or court-appointed child custody mediators or evaluators and the attorney for any party, the court-appointed counsel for a child, or the court. Before and after a Mediation or Child Custody Recommending Counseling appointment, the Mediator or Recommending Counselor may not discuss the case with the parties, nor hold the session when only one party is present, unless, at their discretion, the parties must be separated or if the session was ordered to be separate.
- a. "Communication" includes any verbal statement made in person, by telephone, by voicemail, or by videoconferencing; any written statement, illustration, photograph, or other tangible item, contained in a letter, document, email, or fax; or other equivalent means, either directly or through third parties.
 - b. "Ex parte communication" is a direct or indirect communication on the substance of a pending case without the knowledge, presence, or consent of all parties involved in the matter.
 - c. A "court-connected mediator or evaluator" is a superior court employee or a person under contract with a superior court who conducts child custody evaluations or mediations.

In any child custody proceeding under the Family Code, ex parte communication is prohibited between court-connected or court-appointed mediators or evaluators and the attorney for any party, a court-appointed counsel for a child, or the court, except as provided by California Rule of Court 5.235.

11. Setting a Voluntary Appointment: Depending on available resources, voluntary mediation sessions are permitted. It is not necessary that hearings for custody or visitation be set in order to schedule a case for voluntary mediation. If no hearing is set, there must be an actual dispute, the parties must have attempted to resolve the dispute themselves, and there must be an express agreement of both parties to mediate. Even though no hearing is pending, there must be a petition or complaint filed with the court. (This section does not apply to Child Custody Recommending Counseling, which is only available by court order.) If services are available, parents may attend voluntarily mediation once every twelve (12) months from their previous Family Court Services appointment without a court order or hearing set.
12. Resolution of Other Issues Pending Mediation of Child Custody and Visitation Disputes: The court may make orders on issues such as spousal support and child support pending the completion of mediation. Orders for temporary child support will generally be based upon the custody and visitation arrangement at the time of the hearing. Such orders will be made without prejudice to the rights of either party with respect to the issues of custody and visitation.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

13. Availability of Mediation in Child Support Actions: Child custody and visitation mediation services will be provided in child support actions when both parents are parties to the action.
14. Language Services: In the event one or both of the parties needs services in a language other than English, Family Court Services will attempt to provide a mediator or interpreter to conduct the mediation in the spoken language of both participants. Family Court Services will schedule the interpreter. Sufficient advance notice (seven (7) days) must be provided to allow time to locate an interpreter.
15. Request for Change of Mediator or Child Custody Recommending Counselor: In the event there is a request by a participant in mediation for a change of mediator or a concern regarding a problem relating to the mediation process, the participant shall notify the Family Court Services clerk of the request to change of mediator or recommending counselor. The request may or may not be granted after examination of the circumstances.
16. Status Report: Following the conclusion of each scheduled Mediation or Child Custody Recommending Counseling session, the Mediator/Recommending Counselor shall prepare a Status Report indicating the result of the session. If the dispute between the parties is not resolved in mediation, the mediator will report to the court that no agreement has been reached. The mediator may recommend to the court that an investigation be ordered or psychological evaluation be obtained, that the parties be referred to Child Custody Recommending Counseling, that the child provide input to the court, that the children and/or parents attend counseling or classes, or that the parties receive services on the day of their court hearing. The mediator may note that a report to County Child Protective Services has been made. Further, the mediator may recommend that restraining orders be issued to protect the well-being of the child(ren). If a partial agreement is reached in mediation the mediator will indicate the issues that are unresolved without providing details of the reasons. The mediator will not advise the court of the reasons why mediation was not successful unless the reason is that one or both of the parties: a) would not cooperate in the process; b) did not come to the appointments; or c) there is an allegation of abuse which was reported. Family Court Services shall provide the parties and their attorneys of record with a copy of the Status Report by hand delivery, mail, or email following the conclusion of the session. Status Reports shall be deemed official information within the meaning of Evidence Code section 1040.
17. Recommendation for Appointment of Counsel for Child: The mediator or child custody recommending counselor may recommend that counsel be appointed to represent any minor child(ren) when it appears that the best interests of the minor child requires independent counsel (Family Code section 3184). The reason for the recommendation of the mediator or the child custody recommending counselor shall be stated in general terms and shall not be binding on the court. It shall only be considered insofar as it alerts the court to the need to consider the appointment of counsel. Neither the mediator nor the child custody recommending counselor shall be called as a witness regarding the specific factual basis for the recommendation.
18. Extended or Ongoing Family Counseling: In certain cases, the mediator may recommend to the parties extended or ongoing family counseling. If the parties agree, provision for such counseling may be incorporated into the mediation agreement when the child needs such counseling, or the parties need extended or ongoing counseling in order to resolve the conflicts in their relationship which give rise to their disputes concerning child custody and visitation. Such extended counseling services will not be provided by Family Court Services or at court expense. The mediator may recommend one or more persons or agencies which the parties might contact to obtain counseling.

19. Child or Dependent/Elder Adult Abuse or Threats of Harm: Penal Code section 11166 requires that the mediator immediately report all instances of suspected child abuse and/or neglect to a child protective agency or suspected Dependent/Elder Adult abuse to an adult protective agency. If the mediator suspects that a party is a serious threat of harm to themselves or another person, the mediator is required to report the information to law enforcement for the protection of the party in danger. The details of the suspected abuse or threat of harm shall remain confidential within the mediation session but may be included in the Recommending Counselor's Child Custody Recommending Counseling Report. The parties will be advised at the beginning of the first mediation session of the reporting responsibility.

F. SPECIAL RULES

1. MEDIATION (CONFIDENTIAL)

a. MEDIATION PROCEDURE

The mediator's role is as a neutral party whose primary concern is the satisfactory resolution of the dispute between the parties concerning custody and visitation in a manner which is in the best interests of the child(ren). The mediator is a problem solver and an advocate for the best interests of the child, not an adversary or trier of fact. In Mediation, all communications between the parties and the mediator are confidential except: 1) information which legally must be reported (e.g. someone in the dispute is a danger to self or others); or 2) that a minor child, dependent, or elder adult may have been abused or neglected. Confidentiality of mediation proceedings facilitates communications between the parties and the mediator without fear that such communications will be used in subsequent judicial proceedings. Mediator's files are considered confidential and not available to the parties or their attorneys by subpoena or otherwise. The mediator may not be called as a witness in a subsequent hearing, nor may the mediation service records be subpoenaed.

b. CONFIDENTIALITY OF MEDIATION

- i. No evidence of anything said or any admission made for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation or a mediation consultation is admissible or subject to discovery. Disclosure of the evidence shall not be compelled in any arbitration, administrative adjudication, civil action, or other noncriminal proceeding in which, pursuant to law, testimony can be compelled to be given.
- ii. No writing, as defined in Evidence Code section 250, that is prepared for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation or a mediation consultation, is admissible or subject to discovery. Disclosure of the writing shall not be compelled, in any arbitration, administrative adjudication, civil action, or other noncriminal proceeding in which, pursuant to law, testimony can be compelled to be given.

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

- iii. All communications, negotiations, or settlement discussions by and between participants in the course of a mediation or a mediation consultation shall remain confidential.

c. THE MEDIATION AGREEMENT

i. GENERAL

If the parties reach a parenting agreement as a result of mediation, their agreement will be written by the mediator immediately. The parties will be asked to review and sign the written version of the parenting agreement. Each party will receive a copy of the signed written parenting agreement before leaving the courthouse or via e-mail when appearing remotely, with a copy forwarded to their counsel of record, if represented by counsel.

If an agreement is reached, a ten (10) day rescission period is given to permit parties an opportunity to consider the parenting plan and consult with an attorney regarding the agreement. If, during the ten (10) calendar days following the mediation agreement date, either party wishes to rescind (cancel) the agreement, they must do so in writing.

A written request to rescind (cancel) the entire Parenting Agreement is submitted by sending the Family Court Services office and the other party a signed, written request to rescind the Parenting Agreement on or before 4:00pm on the date that is ten (10) calendar days after the date of the mediation. Sending the request to Family Court Services must be done in one of the following ways:

- Personally take it to the Family Court Services office;
- Fax it to 831-647-5899; or
- Email it to fcs@monterey.courts.ca.gov

IMPORTANT: For the Request to Rescind to be correctly submitted, the party must include the case number and the names of the Petitioner and Respondent on their signed, written request. The party may use a Request to Rescind form, available from Family Court Services. Any agreement which has been rescinded may not be presented to the court at any subsequent hearing.

If a notice of rescission is not received within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the agreement, the agreement will be submitted to a judge for signature, at which point the agreement becomes a court order. Signed and file stamped copies of the agreement will then be sent to the parties at their address of record.

The agreement can be filed and made a court order before the expiration of the ten (10) day period either: a) by written stipulation of all parties; or b) by oral stipulation in open court on the record. The parties may use the Family Court Services courtesy form, "Stipulation to Waive Ten-day Rescission Period" for this purpose.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

The agreement will not create, modify or extinguish any obligation of support. If either party believes that the custody/visitation agreement necessitates a modification of support, a separate order must be sought.

The agreement will not modify, rescind, or preclude existing or future protective orders. Any such orders must be separately modified as necessary before this agreement may be implemented.

ii. PARTIAL AGREEMENTS

In the event some of the disputed issues are resolved and some are left unresolved, the mediator will prepare an agreement covering the resolved issues. A status form appraising the court of the unresolved custody or visitation issues will also be filed. The ten (10) day rescission process described above applies to partial agreements.

iii. CONFIDENTIALITY OF AGREEMENT:

Agreements reached in mediation shall be deemed official information within the meaning of Evidence Code section 1040 until the expiration of the ten (10) day rescission period when the document shall be submitted for signature and become a court order. No part of the document may be submitted into evidence or shared with a person who is not party to the action (or attorney) until the agreement is made an order of the court.

iv. NO AGREEMENT

If the parties do not reach agreement, the mediation is reported to the court as one in which no agreement has been reached and the parties are free to pursue whatever legal remedies are available to them.

2. CHILD CUSTODY RECOMMENDING COUNSELING

Child Custody Recommending Counseling may be scheduled only upon court order. Upon a finding of good cause, the court may direct the Child Custody Recommending Counselor to render a custody or visitation recommendation consistent with Family Code section 3183. Copies of the Child Custody Recommending Counselor's report to the court will be provided to the parties and counsel of record ten (10) days prior to the date of hearing on the review of the report.

If an agreement has been reached between the parties regarding the issues of custody and visitation, the Child Custody Recommending Counselor will prepare and forward to the court and the parties and/or their counsel a written summary of such agreement.

If there is no agreement or only partial agreement between the parties regarding issues of custody and/or visitation, the Child Custody Recommending Counselor will submit a recommendation to the court regarding custody and/or visitation with the minor child(ren) pursuant to Family Code section 3183. The Child Custody Recommending counselor's recommendation shall state the factual basis for the recommendation, which may include matters communicated to the Child Custody Recommending Counselor by the parties or the minor child(ren). The court may consider the written recommendation of the Child Custody Recommending Counselor and the basis for that recommendation in determining the issues before the court at the time of hearing.

All Child Custody Recommending Counseling sessions will be held in private. All communications from a party, a party's attorney, the minor child, the child's attorney and/or any collateral contacts or experts designated by any of the above individuals to the Child Custody Recommending Counselor shall be deemed official information within the meaning of Evidence Code section 1040.

3. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SPECIAL RULES AND SEPARATE SESSIONS

In any case in which a domestic violence order (CLETS) has been issued or a criminal protective order is in place against one of the parties, the mediation shall be set and conducted as Child Custody Recommending Counseling. It shall be set and conducted as separate mediation if ordered by the court or requested by the protected party.

In cases where there has been a history of domestic violence, but no order has been issued, the mediation shall be conducted as separate mediation when requested by the party who has alleged under penalty of perjury that the violence has occurred.

The time and date of separate sessions are confidential and are not disclosed to the other party. The parties are cautioned not to inform the other party of the time and date set. The parties may be instructed to participate in the session via Remote Appearance.

The Child Custody Recommending counselor shall render a written recommendation to the court regarding visitation and custody issues taking into consideration the parameters set by any restraining orders and the provisions of Family Code Section 3044.

The parties may be accompanied by a support person during any session conducted under domestic violence protocols (Family Code Section 6303). The mediator may exclude any support person from a mediation session who disrupts or attempts to participate in the process (Family Code Section 3182(b)).

Until the court adopts the Child Custody Recommending Counseling recommendation, the parties must follow any interim order regarding custody and visitation, unless modified or terminated by court order.

10.7 COURT-ORDERED FACT-BASED INQUIRY

A court-ordered Fact-Based Inquiry refers to a neutral information gathering process designed to enable litigants to efficiently present information to the court on relevant issues. It is limited to information gathering only and does not provide the litigants or the court with an analysis, opinion or recommendation as to a child's health, safety or welfare, or the best interests of a child.

Multiple examinations of the child by different examiners shall be avoided to the greatest degree possible.

A. APPOINTMENT OF LIAISON FOR FACT BASED INQUIRY

In any case in which custody or visitation is in dispute, with the parties' stipulation, the court may appoint a family court liaison to gather information necessary to resolve the dispute.

When a Fact-Based Inquiry through Family Court Services is ordered, each party shall complete a written questionnaire within seven (7) days or as otherwise directed by the judicial officer. The fee must be paid in full or a payment plan ordered by the court. Each party shall inform the liaison officer within 72 hours of any change of address or telephone number occurring during the pendency of a Fact-Based Inquiry.

The court may appoint a person the court has determined possesses the necessary qualifications.

B. COURT REPORT

The court order appointing the Family Court Liaison for a Fact-Based Inquiry shall state the purpose and scope of the Fact-Based Inquiry and the date the report shall be filed with the court. The report shall be in writing and shall be distributed to the court, all counsel, and to the parties prior to hearing. All written reports shall be distributed to the parties by Family Court Services.

C. ACCESS TO THE REPORT

Any written report from the Fact-Based Inquiry shall be confidential and unavailable to any person except the court, the parties, their attorneys and any person to whom the court expressly grants access by written order made with prior notice to all parties. No person who has access to a report shall make copies of the report or disclose the contents of the report, especially to any child. All communications from a party, a party's attorney, the minor child, the child's attorney and/or any collateral contacts or experts designated by any of the above individuals to the Family Court Liaison shall be deemed official information within the meaning of Evidence Code section 1040.

10.8 COURT ORDERED PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION, AND CUSTODY EVALUATION

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

A psychological evaluation refers to an evaluation prepared by a psychologist or psychiatrist, under Family Code sections 3110-3118 and California Rules of Court, rules 5.220-5.230. A custody evaluation refers to an evaluation prepared by a Child and Family Counselor or similar licensed therapist or counselor, under Family Code sections 3110-3118 and California Rules of Court, rules 5.220-5.230.

A. APPOINTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATOR OR CUSTODY EVALUATOR

In any case in which custody or visitation is in dispute, the court may appoint a psychological evaluator or custody evaluator and order that an evaluation be conducted if, in the opinion of the court there is a need for such service.

An “Order Appointing Child Custody Evaluator” (Judicial Council form FL-327) must be used for orders appointing a custody evaluator, and the court or parties may also attach Monterey County Local Court form CI-151 “Supplement to Order Appointing Child Custody Evaluator.”

When an evaluation is ordered, and an evaluator appointed, each party shall contact the evaluator within seven (7) days or as otherwise directed by the judge. The court may appoint a person the court has determined possesses the necessary qualifications.

When an evaluation is ordered, and before appointment as a court-appointed evaluator, the proposed evaluator shall, upon request, provide to the attorneys for the parties, or to the parties if they are unrepresented, the following information:

- a curriculum vitae;
- the names of at least three attorneys who have worked with the individual in connection with previous evaluations, or three mental health professionals who are familiar with the individual’s work; and
- provide proof of meeting the requirements of Family Code sections 3110-3118 and California Rules of Court sections 5.220-230 when applicable;
- payment for the evaluation shall be arranged directly with the evaluator.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

referral list and annually to remain on the referral list, to Family Court Services by December 20th each year for the upcoming year.

3. Professional child custody evaluators are required to file form FL-326 Declaration of Private Child Custody Evaluator Regarding Qualifications, in each case, upon appointment and prior to beginning the custody evaluation process.
4. Professional child custody evaluators are required to file form FL-328 with the custody evaluation upon completion.
5. Filed forms FL-326, and FL-328, as well as all correlating qualifying documents submitted by professional child custody evaluators shall be confidential and unavailable to any person except the court, the parties, their attorneys and any person to whom the court expressly grants access by written order made with prior notice to all parties.

C. CHALLENGES TO COURT-APPOINTED EVALUATOR

No peremptory challenge of a court-appointed evaluator shall be allowed.

E. EX PARTE CONTACT PROHIBITED

No party or attorney for a party shall initiate contact with a court-appointed evaluator, orally or in writing, to discuss the merits of the case without giving the other party notice and an opportunity to be present or to receive a copy of a written communication. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit the court-appointed evaluator from contacting either party or attorney. (California Rules of Court, rule 5.235.)

F. CONTACT BETWEEN COURT-APPOINTED EVALUATOR AND MINOR CHILDREN

Multiple examinations of the child by different examiners shall be avoided to the greatest degree possible. The Court relies on the judgment of the evaluator and other persons appointed, as a part of the evaluation, in making decisions as to whether children will be interviewed, under what circumstances children will be interviewed, and in justifying such decisions in a particular case. Except in extraordinary circumstances, including the potential for danger to the child, children will be informed that the information provided by the child will not be confidential. During the initial meeting, if any, the evaluator shall provide the child with an age-appropriate explanation of the evaluation process. A child seen by the evaluator with one parent will also be seen with the other parent. At the discretion of the evaluator, interviews with siblings may be separate. Unless ordered by the court, an evaluation shall not be based on an interview with only one parent.

G. COURT REPORT

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

The court order appointing the evaluator shall state the purpose and scope of the evaluation and the date the report shall be filed with the court. The report shall be in writing and shall be distributed to the court, all counsel, and to the parties if they are unrepresented ten (10) calendar days prior to hearing. All written reports and recommendations of the court-appointed evaluator shall be conducted in accordance with and served upon the parties or attorneys consistent with the provisions of Family Code section 3111 and California Rules of Court, rule 5.220.

Neither party may initiate court proceedings for the removal of the Child Custody Evaluator or bring to the court's attention any grievances regarding the performance or actions of the Child Custody Evaluator without meeting and conferring with the Child Custody Evaluator in an effort to resolve the grievance. Participation in an alternative dispute resolution process such as arbitration to resolve grievances may be offered.
3. Neither parent shall complain to the Evaluator's professional licensing board without first meeting and conferring with the Child Custody Evaluator in an effort to resolve the grievance. In the event no resolution is reached, the parents and Child Custody Evaluator shall attend at least one session of mediation or other alternate dispute resolution process prior to any action being undertaken.
4. The court shall reserve jurisdiction to determine if either or both parents and/or the Child Custody Evaluator shall ultimately be responsible for any portion of the Child Custody Evaluator's time and costs spent in responding to any grievance and the Child Custody Evaluator's attorney's fees, if any.
5. If either party or the Child Custody Evaluator believes that there exists a grievance between them that cannot be resolved, either party or the Child Custody Evaluator can move the court for relief from this stipulation, after complying with the requirements above.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

5. If either party or the Professional Visit Supervisor believes that there exists a grievance between them that cannot be resolved, either party or the Professional Visit Supervisor can move the court for relief from this stipulation, after complying with the requirements above.

B. CHILD SUPPORT ORDER ATTACHMENTS

A. PETITIONS

A petition to emancipate a minor other than a dependent or ward of the juvenile court must be filed and heard in the Family Law Department. (California Rules of Court, rule 5.605(c).)

B. SCREENING, EVALUATION AND INVESTIGATION OF PETITIONS AND NOTICE TO PARENTS OR GUARDIANS

 - b. Any statement by the minor or other interested party regarding the minor's capability to manage their own financial affairs.

(Family Code § 7121, subd. (a).)

(Adopted January 1, 2023)

10.13 MISCELLANEOUS RULES

A. DUPLICATE FILING

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

Copies of previously filed pleadings or declarations should not be attached as exhibits to subsequent documents. Reference to the previous documents is sufficient.

B. CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS

This rule pertains to any documents that are attached to a pleading and filed with the court as confidential as required by law. This rule does not apply to records sealed or proposed to be sealed by court order pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.550-2.551.

1. A “confidential” document is all or a portion of any document that, in court proceedings, is required by statute, rule of court, or other authority (except a court order under California Rules of Court, rules 2.550-2.551 or rule 8.46) to be closed to inspection by the public or a party. Such documents may include but are not limited to, Juvenile Court records, juvenile immigration status, records of adoption proceedings, records for voluntary or involuntary treatment of mental health disorders or developmental disabilities, social security numbers, financial account numbers, income tax returns, child custody evaluation reports, child custody investigations, and child custody recommending counselor reports.
2. Confidential documents must be filed separately from other documents in the case. Whether filed electronically or otherwise, it is the responsibility of the filing party to identify any documents that are required to be kept confidential by law, and to secure such documents when filed with the court. Documents that are mislabeled as confidential and are not confidential by statute, rule of court, or other authority shall not be filed as confidential. The court retains the discretion to accept, reject, or reclassify submitted documents that have been mislabeled as confidential.
3. The filing party must attach a cover sheet stating the case title, case number, and “CONFIDENTIAL [basis for confidential filing] – May Not Be Examined Without Court Order.” The basis must be a citation to, or other brief description of, the statute, state or local rule of court, appellate decision, or other legal authority that establishes that the document must be closed to inspection in the court proceeding. [See Local Form CI-153, which may be used for this purpose.] The cover sheet must be attached to the confidential documents when served on other parties in the case and when filed.

C. PLEADING FOR ADVERSE PARTY

The practice in domestic relations proceedings whereby the petitioner's attorney prepares a pleading for the respondent is not favored. Unless good cause is shown (e.g., military service, party out of state, etc.), no uncontested civil matter shall be heard on answer or response, unless such instruments are prepared by the answering party or the answering party's counsel.

D. SANCTIONS

Failure to comply with these Local Rules may result in an award of attorney fees, costs, or other sanctions pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 575.2.

E. DISMISSAL OF FAMILY LAW CASE ON COURT'S OWN MOTION

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

Absent good cause, a family law case may be dismissed, without prejudice, on the court's own noticed motion when:

1. The case is dropped from the trial calendar because the parties have reconciled; and
2. No further action is taken in the case within one-hundred-eighty (180) calendar days from the date the case is dropped from the trial calendar.

F. COURT COMMUNICATION PROTOCOL FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND CHILD CUSTODY ORDERS

Court records shall be accessed as set forth in the following paragraph in order to determine if a Criminal Protective Order (CPO) exists involving the parties and affecting the custody or visitation of the children. Any Custody or Visitation Order (CVO) subsequently issued shall take into consideration the terms of any existing CPO and shall be drafted in a manner not inconsistent with the CPO.

The court records shall be accessed as follows:

1. Family Law, Probate and Juvenile: When there are allegations of domestic violence in the documents submitted to the court.
2. Civil Restraining Orders - Domestic Violence, Harassment, Elder Abuse and Workplace Violence: Prior to the issuance of a temporary restraining order and prior to the hearing on such order.
3. Mediation: Prior to every Mediation and any time there are allegations of domestic violence in the file.

The Domestic Violence court shall make reasonable efforts to determine if a custody or visitation order exists involving the defendant. The court issuing the CPO may permit visitation pursuant to any Family Law, Probate or Juvenile Court order so long as such visitation is determined by the court to be consistent with the safety of the victim[s].

When a CPO exists, any CVO that permits contact between the defendant and the children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children. The CVO shall also specify the time, day, place and manner of transfer of the child pursuant to Family Code section 3100 so as to limit the child's exposure to potential domestic conflict or violence and to ensure the safety of all family members. The safety of the parties and their children shall be the court's paramount concern.

This rule does not prevent a CVO from containing more restrictive terms than the CPO.

G. COMPLAINTS CONCERNING FAMILY COURT SERVICES PROFESSIONALS

Complaints regarding a Family Court Services Mediator, Recommending Counselor, Investigator, Evaluator, Liaison or Staff must be made in writing and addressed to the Court Executive Officer, Superior Court of California, County of Monterey, 240 Church Street, Salinas, CA 93901. The complainant may use the courtesy form entitled "Client Complaint Form," available by contacting Family Court Services, for this purpose. The Court Executive Officer or designee will conduct an investigation and will respond to the written complaint within ninety (90) days. The complainant may appeal the response to the Presiding Judge. The Presiding Judge will rule on the appeal within ninety (90) days.

CHAPTER 10

FAMILY LAW DEPARTMENT

H. LIMITED LEGAL REPRESENTATION

If representation by an attorney is limited in scope, the Notice of Limited Scope Representation form (Judicial Council form FL-950) specifying the scope of the representation shall be filed with the court. All communications and notices relating to the limited purposes shall be made or sent to all attorneys of record, self-represented parties, and the Department of Child Support Services. When the task specified in the Notice of Limited Scope Representation has been completed, the attorney shall file a Substitution of Attorney-Civil (Judicial Council form MC-050) or proceed pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 5.425.

I. NON-CLETS ORDERS

The court will not issue or approve a stipulation by the parties for a non-CLETS restraining order.

CHAPTER 11

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

11.1 ROLE OF PARENTING COORDINATOR

A Parenting Coordinator is a mental health professional, or family law attorney who specializes in helping high-conflict parents resolve disputes regarding their children. Parenting Coordination is a child-focused dispute resolution process that combines parent education, dispute assessment, mediation, facilitated negotiation, and conflict and communication management. When parents are unable to resolve their parenting disputes with the Parenting Coordinator's assistance, the Parenting Coordinator makes recommendations or decisions on issues that are specified in a stipulation and order. The ultimate goal is to help parents learn to resolve disputed or difficult issues amicably and efficiently on their own, without having to involve the Parenting Coordinator or the adversarial process.

(Adopted effective October 1, 1998, Amended July 1, 2015)

11.2 SELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF PARENTING COORDINATORS

A. TIMING

A Parenting Coordinator may be appointed at any time during a proceeding involving child custody or visitation issues, upon the stipulation of the parties and subject to the approval of the court.

B. PROCEDURE

1. Appointment

The parties may stipulate to appointment of a Parenting Coordinator, subject to consent of the individual selected, and subject to the court's approval. The Parenting Coordinator's role, powers, duties, term, and incidental matters should be set forth in a written stipulation and order. (See Attached Stipulation and Order Appointing Parenting Coordinator.)

2. Acceptance of Appointment

The proposed Parenting Coordinator shall have the right to accept or decline any appointment, with or without giving a stated reason. A person proposed as a Parenting Coordinator is required to decline appointment if they know of any bias or conflict of interest that would prevent them from acting fairly and impartially.

The Parenting Coordinator shall act pursuant to a written stipulation and order defining their role, duties, and fees. The form of the order shall be signed and approved by the Parenting Coordinator.

C. TERM OF APPOINTMENT

The Parenting Coordinator shall be appointed for a specified term or length of time, usually at least one (1) year and not more than three (3) years. This will give the Parenting Coordinator sufficient time to work with the family, while reinforcing the parents' responsibility for their own lives and their children's welfare.

CHAPTER 11

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

D. LEGAL AUTHORITY FOR APPOINTMENT

There is no specific legal authority for appointment of a Parenting Coordinator. For this reason, a Parenting Coordinator may only be appointed upon the stipulation of the parties.

Absent a stipulation for appointment of a Parenting Coordinator, the court does have authority to appoint a third party (not a Parenting Coordinator) under one or more of the following Code sections:

1. An expert witness under Evidence Code section 730;
2. A referee under Code of Civil Procedure section 638 et seq.;
3. An investigator or evaluator under Family Code section 3110 et seq.;
4. An arbitrator under Code of Civil Procedure section 1280; and
5. A mediator under Family Code sections 3160-3186.

E. QUALIFICATIONS

The parties and counsel are responsible for determining whether a proposed Parenting Coordinator is qualified for appointment. Upon request, a proposed Parenting Coordinator must provide the requestor with a resume or other documentation of their qualifications prior to the filing of a stipulation and order appointing a Parenting Coordinator.

For the benefit of the parties and counsel the following qualifications are recommended.

All Parenting Coordinators should have completed a training (twelve (12) hours or more) in Parenting Coordination. In addition, Parenting Coordinators should meet the following professional standards at the time of appointment:

PSYCHOLOGISTS, PSYCHIATRISTS, MARRIAGE, FAMILY AND CHILD THERAPISTS, AND LICENSED CLINICAL SOCIAL WORKERS:

 - c. Three (3) years' experience in court-based family mediation or assessment.

CHAPTER 11

F. FEES

A person appointed as a Parenting Coordinator is entitled to charge a reasonable fee commensurate with their experience and abilities and to request an appropriate retainer (subject to replenishment as it becomes diminished). The order appointing the Parenting Coordinator shall clearly specify the fee arrangement and each party's responsibility for the fee, as determined by the court or by stipulation. The Parenting Coordinator shall also have the ability to recommend a reallocation of fees as a sanction for obstructive behavior; this power shall also be spelled out in the order.

G. WITHDRAWAL AND REMOVAL

Once appointed, the Parenting Coordinator shall have the right to withdraw upon written notice to the court and the parties, with or without a stated reason.

CHAPTER 11

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

The Parenting Coordinator may be disqualified on any of the grounds applicable to the removal of a judge, referee or arbitrator, upon noticed motion by either party or the court, sua sponte, after notice to all parties and the Parenting Coordinator.

Neither party may initiate court proceedings for the removal of the Parenting Coordinator or to bring to the attention of the court or any other body any grievances regarding the performance or actions of the Parenting Coordinator without meeting and conferring with the Parenting Coordinator in an effort to resolve the grievance.

(Adopted effective October 1, 1998, Amended July 1, 2015; Amended January 1, 2024)

11.3 POWERS AND SCOPE OF THE PARENTING COORDINATOR'S AUTHORITY

The Parenting Coordinator shall not make any recommendations that alter a custodial designation of joint, or sole, legal or physical custody established in a current order of the court, prohibit a party's contact with their children, require or prohibit adherence to a religion, or which substantially alter or reconfigure the parents' time sharing arrangements (defined as increasing or decreasing a parent's time more than two (2) twenty-four hour (24) periods in twenty-eight (28) days). These decisions and others relating to issues not included among those assigned to the Parenting Coordinator, as set forth in the stipulation and order, are reserved to the Monterey County Superior Court for adjudication. For those matters, a Parenting Coordinator's authority is limited to recommending to the parents (without any recommendation as to the preferred outcome) that the court be requested to review and consider any such matter. A party who wishes a court review of the matter following a recommendation for review by the Parenting Coordinator must file and serve a Request for Order in order for the matter to be reviewed and considered.

A. POWERS OF THE PARENTING COORDINATOR; FIRST LEVEL – AUTHORITY TO MAKE BINDING DECISIONS

The Parenting Coordinator shall have authority to make binding decisions, if the parties so stipulate, on matters relating to daily routines, management of services provided by third parties and minor alterations in the visitation schedule.

The decisions will continue in effect unless modified or set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction. Parenting Coordinator decisions on these matters shall be communicated to parties and counsel in person, by telephone, mail, fax, email or email attachment and/or personal delivery, and will take effect immediately upon issuance.

1. Minor alterations in schedule that do not substantially alter a child's time with either parent during a thirty (30) day period

3. Sharing of parent vacations and holidays

7. Participation in afterschool, enrichment, and athletic activities
8. Scheduling disputes arising from afterschool, enrichment, athletic, religious education and training and other activities

The Parenting Coordinator has the authority to make recommendations on the issues set forth below. The recommendations shall be submitted to the court, which may approve them and enter them as court orders.

1. Alterations in schedule that do not increase or decrease a child's time with either parent by more than two (2) twenty-four (24) hour periods in twenty-eight (28) days
2. Coordinating church attendance and religious classes

A Parenting Coordinator's recommendation on these matters shall be filed with the court and served upon parties and counsel by mail, fax, or personal delivery. Either party shall have the right to request a written explanation from the Parenting Coordinator of any recommendation, which shall be provided within ten (10) calendar days to parties, counsel, and the court. The Parenting Coordinator recommendations shall be subject to adoption by the court as an order unless either party files and serves a motion objecting to entry of the order within twenty (20) calendar days of service of the recommendations.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2015, Renumbered January 1, 2023; Amended January 1, 2024)

11.4 PROCEDURE FOR IMPLEMENTING RECOMMENDATIONS

- B. The Parenting Coordinator's recommendation on second-level matters shall be communicated in writing to the court/parties and counsel by mail, fax, or personal delivery. The Parenting Coordinator's recommendations are subject to adoption by the court as an order after fifteen (15) days unless either party files and serves a motion objecting to entry of the order. Either party should have the right to request a written explanation of any recommendation, to be provided within twenty (20) calendar days, to the other party, counsel, and the court.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2015)

11.5 COOPERATION AND COMMUNICATIONS

- A. Both parents shall participate in the dispute resolution process as defined by the Parenting Coordinator and shall be present when so requested by the Parenting Coordinator. The Parenting Coordinator may conduct sessions that are informal in nature, by telephone or in person, and need not comply with the rules of evidence. No formal record need be made, except the Parenting Coordinator's written decision and recommendations and the parents' mutual agreements. The Parenting Coordinator shall have the authority to determine the protocol of all interviews and sessions including, in the case of meetings with the parents, the

- E. The Parenting Coordinator may communicate with the parties' child or children outside the presence of the parents. The Parenting Coordinator may communicate with the therapists who are treating the parties' child or children as well. The Parenting Coordinator may keep such communications confidential.

(Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2015)

11.7 IMMUNITY; TESTIMONY

The Parenting Coordinator is a court officer and has quasi-judicial immunity. The Parenting Coordinator cannot be sued based on their actions in this matter, so long as the Parenting Coordinator maintains neutrality and performs quasi-judicial functions. (See Howard v. Drapkin (1990) 222 Cal.App.3rd 843.) The Parenting Coordinator's file may not be subpoenaed, and the Parenting Coordinator may not be compelled to testify.

ORDER APPOINTING PARENTING COORDINATOR

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
County of Monterey

In Re the Marriage of:

Petitioner:

and

Respondent:

Case No.

STIPULATION AND ORDER RE
APPOINTMENT OF PARENTING
COORDINATOR

PRINCIPLES:

A. The parents acknowledge that their child(ren) will benefit from a meaningful relationship with both parents that continued parental conflict will generally negatively impact their child(ren)'s adjustment, and that every effort should be made to keep the child(ren) out of the middle of their parents' disputes and communications.

B. The parents agree voluntarily to enter into this Agreement because of a desire to:

- De-escalate parental conflict to which the child(ren) are exposed;
- Focus on their child(ren)'s needs and best interests;
- Promote their child(ren)'s optimum adjustment;
- Resolve issues and disputes between the parents concerning the clarification, implementation, modification and/or adaptation of the court-ordered parenting plan through the informal process described in this order in a timely and cost-efficient manner without litigation; and
- Benefit from the direction of a qualified professional chosen to serve as the Parenting Coordinator.

C. Parenting Coordination is a child-focused dispute resolution process that combines parent education, dispute assessment, mediation, facilitated negotiation, and conflict and communication management. When parents are unable to resolve their parenting disputes with the Parenting Coordinator's assistance, the Parenting Coordinator makes recommendations or decisions on issues that are specified in this Stipulation and Order. The ultimate goal is to help parents learn to resolve disputed or difficult issues amicably and efficiently on their own, without having to involve the Parenting Coordinator or the adversarial process.

PURSUANT TO THE STIPULATION OF THE PARENTS hereinafter set forth, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

CHAPTER 11

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

A. APPOINTMENT:

1. _____ is appointed Parenting Coordinator by agreement of the parties until resignation of the Parenting Coordinator or written agreement of the parents, further court order, or months (normally not to exceed three (3) years) after the date on which this stipulated Order becomes effective, whichever first occurs.

2. This appointment is based upon the expertise of the Parenting Coordinator as a licensed mental health professional or licensed attorney. However, the Parenting Coordinator process is not confidential. If the Parenting Coordinator is a licensed mental health professional, no therapist-patient relationship and/or privilege is created by this stipulation. If the Parenting Coordinator is a licensed attorney, no client-attorney relationship and/or privilege is created by this stipulation.

3. The Parenting Coordinator is a Court Officer and has quasi-judicial immunity. The Parenting Coordinator cannot be sued based on their actions in this matter. The Parenting Coordinator's file may not be subpoenaed, and the Parenting Coordinator may not be compelled to testify.

4. The Parenting Coordinator may resign any time they determine the resignation to be in the best interest of the child(ren) or the Parenting Coordinator is unable to serve out their term, upon thirty (30) days written notice to the parents.

B. AUTHORITY OF PARENTING COORDINATOR

5. The role of the Parenting Coordinator is to decide disputes relating to the clarification and implementation of current court-ordered parenting plans. The Parenting Coordinator may also make decisions regarding the parenting matters listed below in Section C (Level One Authority), and the Parenting Coordinator may make recommendations, but not decisions, regarding the other parenting matters listed below in Section D (Level Two Authority).

6. If either party requests a decision or recommendation that would change a provision set forth in an existing order re child related issues, the party requesting the change must demonstrate to the Parenting Coordinator that a change in the family's situation has occurred which warrants changing the specific provision, including substantial child development issues, in an existing order.

7. The Parenting Coordinator may only make decisions or recommendations resolving conflicts between the parents which do not affect the court's exclusive jurisdiction to determine fundamental issues of custody and time-share. Specifically, the Parenting Coordinator does not have authority to make any decisions or recommendations that alter a custodial designation of joint or, sole, legal or physical custody established in a current order of the court, prohibit a party's contact with their children, or require or prohibit adherence to a religion or which substantially alter or reconfigure the parents' time sharing arrangements (defined as increasing or decreasing a parent's time more than two twenty-four hour periods in twenty-eight (28) days). These decisions and others relating to issues not included among those assigned to the Parenting Coordinator, as set forth in the Stipulation and Order, are reserved to the Monterey County Superior Court for adjudication.

8. For the matters described in Section 7, the Parenting Coordinator's authority is limited to recommending to the parents (without any recommendation as to the preferred outcome) that the court be requested to review and consider any such matter. A party who wishes a court review of the matter following a recommendation for review by the Parenting Coordinator must file and serve a Request for Order for the matter to be reviewed and considered by the court.

CHAPTER 11

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

C. AUTHORITY TO MAKE DECISIONS AND ORDERS (LEVEL ONE AUTHORITY)

9. Each party specifically agrees that the Parenting Coordinator may make decisions regarding possible conflicts they may have on the following issues, and that such decisions are effective when made and will continue in effect unless modified or set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction:

- Minor alterations in schedule that do not substantially alter a child's time with either parent during a thirty (30) day period
- Dates, times, designated person, location and method of pick-up and delivery
- Sharing of parent vacations and holidays
- Responsibility for transportation to accommodate time-sharing between the parents
- Selection of childcare/daycare and babysitting providers
- Childrearing disputes such as bedtime, diet, clothing, homework, and discipline
- Participation in afterschool, enrichment, and athletic activities
- Scheduling disputes arising from afterschool, enrichment, athletic, religious education and training and other activities

(Note: the parents may exclude specified items from the above list by agreement of the parents and Parenting Coordinator).

10. Decisions on the matters listed above are binding when communicated by phone, voicemail, fax, email, including email attachments, or personal delivery. If communicated by phone or voicemail, a written communication will also be sent to the parents. At the request of either parent, a decision will be formalized by the Parenting Coordinator and submitted to the court to be entered as a court order. By signing this agreement, each parent acknowledges their understanding that the Parenting Coordinator's decisions on the issues listed above in paragraph 9 are binding on them. Such decisions are to be treated the same as final orders of the court, which may be reviewed by the state Court of Appeals.

D. AUTHORITY TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE COURT (LEVEL TWO AUTHORITY):

11. The Parenting Coordinator will have authority to make recommendations on the following issues:

- Alterations in schedule that do not increase or decrease a child's time with either parent by more than two (2) twenty-four (24) hour periods in twenty-eight (28) days
- Coordinating church attendance and religious classes

the parents and Parenting Coordinator.)

12. Recommendation on these matters shall be served on the Court, parties and counsel by mail, fax or personal delivery. Either party shall have the right to request a written explanation from the Parenting Coordinator of any recommendation, which shall be provided within ten (10) calendar days to parties, counsel and the court. The Parenting Coordinator recommendations shall be subject to adoption by the Court as an order unless either party files and serves a motion objecting to entry of the order within twenty (20) calendar days of service of the recommendations.

E. PROCEDURE:

13. Both parents shall participate in the dispute resolution process as defined by the Parenting Coordinator and shall be present when so requested by the Parenting Coordinator. The Parenting Coordinator may conduct sessions which are informal in nature, by telephone or in person, and need not comply with the rules of evidence. No formal record need be made, except the Parenting Coordinator's written decision and recommendations and the parents' mutual agreements. The Parenting Coordinator shall have the authority to determine the protocol of all interviews and sessions including, in the case of meetings with the parents, the power to determine who attends such meetings, including individual and joint sessions with the parents and/or the child(ren) and other relevant third parties.

14. The parents shall provide all reasonable records, documentation, and information requested by the Parenting Coordinator.

15. The Parenting Coordinator may utilize consultants as necessary to assist the Parenting Coordinator in the performance of the duties contained herein.

F. COMMUNICATION WITH PARENTING COORDINATOR:

16. The parents and their attorneys shall have the right to initiate or receive ex parte communication with the Parenting Coordinator under guidelines established by the Parenting Coordinator. Copies of all written communications to the Parenting Coordinator including emails are to be provided to the other party. The Parenting Coordinator may, in their sole discretion, initiate written communications with a parent or counsel that are not copied to the other party.

17. The Parenting Coordinator may communicate with the parties' child or children outside the presence of the parents. The Parenting Coordinator may communicate with the therapists who are treating the parties' child or children, as well. The Parenting Coordinator may keep such communications confidential.

G. CHILD ABUSE REPORTING

18. The Duty to Report: The California Penal Code mandates that all child care custodians and health care practitioners (Doctors, Marriage, Family and Child Counselors, Psychologists, Social Workers and others) report to child protective services information regarding child abuse that comes to the attention of the health care practitioner. The reporting requirement is an exception to the confidentiality privilege.

19. Immunity for Child Abuse Reporting: Health care practitioners who are required to report allegations of child abuse are immune from civil suits or liability for making their required reports. They cannot be sued for the report. Specific statutes provide for the immunity from civil suits.

CHAPTER 11

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

20. Attorney Parenting Coordinator: The child abuse reporting statute does not apply to attorneys because attorneys are not named in the statute as a class of persons who mandatorily must report a child abuse allegation. However, an attorney Parenting Coordinator has the discretion to report any such allegation and may make such a report.

21. False Allegations of Child Abuse: Family Code section 3027.1, subdivision (a), provides for a monetary sanction and attorney fees for any knowingly false allegation of child abuse made during a child custody proceeding. This section does not apply to a Parenting Coordinator who reports an allegation received from a parent, child, or other third party, but does apply to the person making the allegation to the Parenting Coordinator if the court finds that the initial allegation was made knowing that it was untrue.

H. FEES AND ALLOCATION OF FEES:

22. The Parenting Coordinator's fees shall be shared according to the following allocation: Petitioner _____%; Respondent _____. The Parenting Coordinator will require an advance security deposit of $ _____ from each party, to be returned to the parents at the end of the Parenting Coordinator tenure, less any balance owing by either party. The Parenting Coordinator may also require a retainer against which ongoing work is charged and which is to be replenished.

23. The Parenting Coordinator fees are $ _____ per hour. Time spent in interviewing, report preparation, review of records and correspondence, telephone conversations with the parents or others relevant to the parental disputes, travel, court preparation and any other time invested in connection with serving as Parenting Coordinator will also be billed at the $ _____ hourly rate. The Parenting Coordinator fee for Court appearances and settlement conference is $ _____ per hour while in Court and at the settlement conference and $ _____ per hour travel time to and from their office. The Parenting Coordinator shall have the right to allocate payment of their fees at a percentage different from the above if they believe the need for their services is attributable to the conduct and/or intransigence of one party.

24. The Parenting Coordinator shall be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in association with their role as Parenting Coordinator. These costs may include, but are not limited to, the following: photocopies, messenger service, long distance telephone charges, express and/or certified mail costs, parking, tolls, mileage, and other travel expenses.

25. The Parenting Coordinator may require payment at the end of each in-person session, and require payment within ten days of receipt of billing sent for all other services, as above and may require replenishment of the retainer. Any objection to the Parenting Coordinator bills must be brought to the Parenting Coordinator's attention in written form within ten business days of the billing date; otherwise the billing shall be deemed agreed to. The Parenting Coordinator may cease to perform services for the parties if payment is not current.

26. In the event that either party fails to provide twenty-four (24) hours telephone notice of cancellation of any appointment with the Parenting Coordinator, such party shall pay all of the Parenting Coordinator charges of such missed appointment at the full hourly rate, at the discretion of the Parenting Coordinator.

PARENTING COORDINATOR GUIDELINES (CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION)

I. GRIEVANCES:

27. The Parenting Coordinator may be disqualified on any of the grounds applicable to the removal of a judge, commissioner, referee or arbitrator.

28. Neither party may initiate court proceedings for the removal of the Parenting Coordinator or to bring to the court's attention any grievances regarding the performance or actions of the Parenting Coordinator without meeting and conferring with the Parenting Coordinator in an effort to resolve the grievance. Participation in an alternative dispute resolution process such as arbitration to resolve grievances may be required by the Parenting Coordinator prior to the Parenting Coordinator's acceptance of this appointment.

29. Neither parent shall complain to the Coordinator's professional licensing board without first meeting and conferring with the Parenting Coordinator in an effort to resolve the grievance. In the event no resolution is reached, the parents and Parenting Coordinator shall attend at least one session of mediation or other alternate dispute resolution process prior to any action being undertaken.

30. The court shall reserve jurisdiction to determine if either or both parents and/or the Parenting Coordinator shall ultimately be responsible for any portion of all of said Parenting Coordinator time and costs spent in responding to any grievance and the Parenting Coordinator's attorney's fees, if any.

31. If either party or the Parenting Coordinator believes that there exists a grievance between them with respect to this stipulation that cannot be resolved, either party or the Parenting Coordinator can move the court for relief from this stipulation, after complying with paragraph thirty (30) above.

J. ENFORCEMENT:

32. The court reserves jurisdiction in the family law action to enforce the provisions of this stipulation.

33. In the event that arbitration proceedings or a legal action become necessary to enforce any provision of this order, the non-prevailing party shall pay attorney's fees and costs as may be incurred.

K. ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS:

34. I have had an opportunity independently to consult with a lawyer of my choice before entering into this stipulation. I have read this stipulation and understand it. I freely and voluntarily enter into this stipulation.

35. I choose to use the Parenting Coordinator process as an alternate method of dispute resolution to reduce future custody and visitation litigation. (Adopted October 1, 1998; Amended July 1, 2002; Amended January 1, 2009)

14.6 PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE CALENDAR

In order to reasonably predict the business of the court, anticipate assignments of judges, and to eliminate unnecessary inconvenience to parties, witnesses, and trial jurors, a pre-trial conference shall be held in every criminal case in which a trial by jury has been demanded.

- A. Procedures. The judge in each felony department, except the felony arraignment department, shall, at the time of arraignment and entry of plea, set the date for the pre-trial conference. - D. Trial Brief Requirement. In all criminal matters where the case does not settle at the pre-trial conference and the matter remains set for trial, trial counsel shall file a brief no later than 12:00 noon on Friday for all felony cases and no later than 3:00 p.m. on Friday for all misdemeanor cases immediately preceding the trial date (in most instances the following Monday) unless an earlier date is ordered by the court. There shall be a jury trial readiness calendar for all criminal and traffic misdemeanor cases at which all trial counsel must be present. If the trial attorney fails to appear, the court may, in its discretion, find the attorney in contempt.

- A. Procedures. Upon the calling of such readiness calendar, all motions for continuance, waiver of jury, change of plea, reductions, or other procedural matters shall be presented. In the event the case is not disposed of at the trial readiness conference and a trial date is confirmed, all offers on either side will be deemed withdrawn and the case will be tried on all counts. No further amendments to pleadings or continuances will be granted except for good cause shown.
- B. Date Set for Trial - Duties. When the parties announce they are ready for trial, the parties announce that:
- The respective attorneys are prepared to commence the trial immediately.
 - All pre-trial motions and discovery have been completed.
 - All witnesses are readily available and have been interviewed by the respective attorneys.
 - The attorneys' calendars permit them to commence the trial immediately and see it to conclusion.
- C. Proposed Jury Questionnaires. Unless waived by the trial judge, counsel shall submit proposed jury questionnaires to the court no less than fifteen (15) court days in advance of the trial date. Upon receipt, the questionnaires shall not be officially filed by the clerk of the court, but shall be immediately forwarded by the clerk to the trial judge for review.
- D. Continuance Policy. The welfare of the People of the State of California requires that all proceedings in criminal cases shall be set for trial and heard at the earliest possible time (Penal Code section 1050). Any motion to continue in a criminal proceeding must comply with Penal Code section 1050.
1. No continuance will be granted solely because all parties agree thereto.
 2. Trailing. Should it be necessary that cases be trailed for hearing or trial, they will be trailed day by day. The case will be called each day at 11:30 a.m., 4:30 p.m., and the next day at 8:30 a.m. When a case is trailing, the defendant and counsel, except in extraordinary circumstances, must be present when the case is called.
